

MUST CLEAN UP BEFORE SUMMER*Health Department Issues Its Annual Orders

Dr. Graves Says He Will See That Instructions Are Obeyed in the Future.

INSPECTORS ARE GETTING BUSY

"Notice to clean up will be given but once from now on. The time allowed to do will be specified, and if we can't get relief from the warrants we have issued from one court, we will take them promptly to another." This was the statement of Health Officer Dr. W. T. Graves this morning in discussing the sanitary precautions for the city with the approach of summer and the hot weather. The orders to be issued by the board of health this summer will require cutting down weeds, draining stagnant water and keeping all premises and business houses strictly clean.

Finding antagonism to having houses where consumption is present, placarded, Health Officer Graves has decided not to push the matter, as he has never been successful in placarding houses. People will not stand for having the signs on their houses in the lingering months of consumption. But none of the other precautionary measures will be abated, and the fumigation after death will be strictly enforced.

Two Warrants Issued.

Early spring brings active work from the sanitary inspectors and two warrants have been issued since yesterday. Harth Bros., conducting a grain warehouse at Norton and Eighth streets, are summoned to appear April 1. They are alleged to have permitted a stagnant pool of water to accumulate in the rear of their property. An unsanitary condition in the rear of Roy Ballowe's drug store at Tenth street and Broadway caused a warrant to be issued against the proprietor. His hearing will be on Monday.

FLOWERS ON MARKET.

Present Beautiful Scene Early This Morning.

This morning's market resembled a florist's exhibit more than a market garden. Lilacs were in profusion and almost every stall contained a bunch of the flowers. Pansies, jonquills, bleeding hearts and numerous other of the early blooming plants, were in evidence. Marketers say there were more flowers this morning than they ever remember of seeing before. It was a pretty sight to see the benches filled with flowers and early vegetables, and the eager buyers were taking full advantage of the opportunity. Easter always gives an impetus to the flower trade, but this year has surpassed the preceding.

The warm days of the past week have opened the buds wonderfully. Yesterday's rain refreshed plants greatly, but in the country it was not needed badly. Farmers have started plowing, but many are dubious about planting tender vegetables without protection, as they predict a frost next month. The first home raised spring chickens could be had this morning, and were sold readily at 45 cents a piece.

DERBY HAT IS FOUND ON BOSOM OF THE RIVER.

The finding of a Derby hat in the Tennessee river a few hundred yards down stream from where the crew of the gasoline boat "Browlie" saw an oarsman pull a corpse out into the river in his skiff, furnishes additional evidence of the theory of murder. James Hale found the hat this morning. It was turned over to Captain Ed Parley, who reported the matter to the police department.

MISS ALVIS WYATT.

Sixteen-Year-Old Girl Succumbs to White Plague.

Miss Alvis Wyatt, 16 years old, died of tuberculosis yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at 643 Elizabeth street. She was the daughter of Druggist W. D. Wyatt, Jackson and Eleventh streets. The body was taken to Harbin, Marshall county, for burial.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Partly cloudy and colder tonight. Sunday partly cloudy and moderately cold. Highest temperature yesterday, 64; lowest today, 53.

THAW COMMISSION.

New York, March 30.—The Thaw lunacy commission resumed its examination in secret session today, with Harry Thaw before them.

ABE PATRICK.

Ossining, N. Y., March 30.—Albert T. Patrick, the lawyer convicted of the murder of millionaire William Rice, and whose death sentence was commuted to life imprisonment by the late Governor Higgins, is on the verge of a collapse. According to prison authorities he is not expected to live out the year. He has not given up hope of a new trial.

TEAMSTERS STRIKE.

Boston, March 30.—A strike of all teamsters in the city is expected next Wednesday. Officers of the international union have arrived to engineer it. The union has 5,000 members here.

FOLLOWS STAHL.

St. Wayne, Ind., March 30.—D. P. Murphy, an old-time baseball player, who formerly played with "Chic" Stahl, in minor leagues, arrived here today to attend Stahl's funeral. He registered at a hotel and after eating breakfast, went to a room and swallowed carbolic acid and died in fifteen minutes. At breakfast he stated he had been desperate ever since he heard of Stahl's death.

EXPLOSION.

Youngstown, O., March 30.—One man dead and another dying and a half dozen badly burned is the result of an explosion at the entrance of the Ohio Iron and Steel company today. A slip of metal caused the blowing out of the furnace.

IN ROUMANIA.

Bucharest, March 30.—Roumania is being flooded with an archaic manifestoes and proclamations. Stirred up by these manifestoes peasants are preparing to destroy the forests in the upland regions. Today's advices show the disorder continues in many parts of the country.

ANOTHER LUNATIC.

Washington, March 30.—Charles Riley, who said he came from Rock Springs, Md., on a freight train, called at the white house to see the president at 6 o'clock this morning. He said the president summoned him to Washington by wireless telegraph in a murder trial. He was taken to the police station where he is held for an examination.

GRAIN MARKET.

Cincinnati, March 30.—Wheat, 79; corn, 49; oats, 46½.

NIGHT RIDERS.

Princeton, Ky., March 30.—Last night 30 masked men went to the home of Tom Reddick near Lamas, this county, and forced him to go to the barn and point out tobacco, belonging to Mr. Wallace, a prominent independent grower. They poured oil on the tobacco and burned it. They then went to Wallace's barn and set fire to it.

Raft of Logs Attached.

Magistrate Emery attached a raft of 289 logs this morning in the case of Jack Nelson against Fletcher and Foreman, for a debt of $28. The defendants will give bond and settle without a sale of the property.

BECKHAM VICTORY WAS NOMINATION*Attorney Eugene Graves For Representative

Preliminary Struggle Over Chairmanship Showed Strength of Candidate.

HON. W. A. BERRY PRESIDES.

Governor Beckham's forces won a local victory today in the nomination of Eugene Graves, the well known attorney of this city, for representative. The Democrats of the county met in mass convention at the court house at 2 o'clock, and after a preliminary wrangle chose W. A. Berry as chairman. He was opposed by William Wickliffe. R. B. Wilcox was responsible for Mr. Berry's nomination and Young Taylor for the name of Mr. Wickliffe. After that it required little time for the consummation of the rest of the business. Bernard Kavanaugh, a newspaperman, was chosen secretary, and Hon. Hal Corbett nominated Mr. Eugene Graves. The name of James P. McKinney was presented and on division of the house, Chairman Berry declared Mr. Graves the nominee.

GOVERNMENT SUPERVISION.

Is Favored By President Harahan of Illinois Central.

New York, March 30.—The Sun says President J. J. Harahan, of the Illinois Central railroad, is quoted as saying today that he is in favor of the federal supervision of railroads and the giving of wide publicity to railroad affairs. "Railroads," said President Harahan, "which are opposed to further publicity should be compelled to favor it, for it is necessary to bring the railroads and the public into closer relations." Mr. Harahan advocates a board of expert government examiners, who would investigate the accounts of railroads in exactly the same manner that the national bank examiners probe into the affairs of national banks. He believes, too, that the interstate commerce commission should establish a branch in the west.

JAMES CARROLL.

Body Laid to Rest in Oak Grove Cemetery Today.

The body of James Carroll, the Paducah ship carpenter, who died yesterday in Memphis at the age of 73 years, arrived from Memphis at noon today and was taken to Oak Grove cemetery from the train. Carroll lived in Paducah until a few years ago when he went to Memphis. He is survived by a daughter, Miss Zella Carroll.

The body was met at the train by the local Caulkers' union, who went out in a special car. The burial followed at Oak Grove cemetery. Miss Zella Carroll, a daughter, and Mr. George Tewell accompanied the body from Memphis.

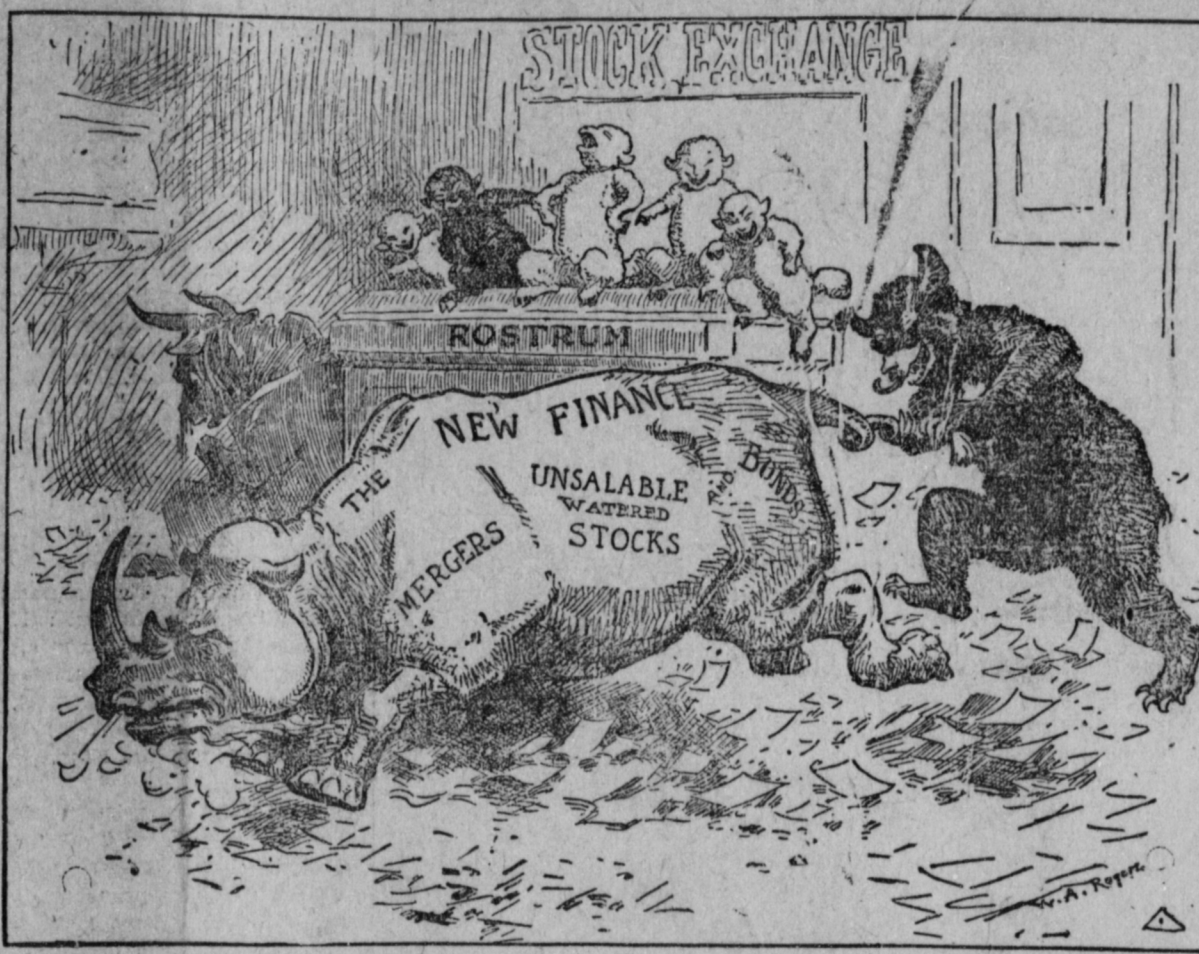

Salvation Army.

Sunday morning, Fifth and Broadway, 10 a. m.; Fourth and Broadway, 11 a. m.; Third and Broadway, 2 o'clock; inside meeting at 3 p. m.; Fourth and Broadway, 7 p. m.; inside meeting 8 p. m. Meetings every night except Monday. Headquarters 130 Broadway.

W. B. SMITH GOES ACQUIT IN COURT

Louisville, Ky., March 30.—(Special)—After a trial lasting two days, W. B. Smith, former president of Western National bank, was dismissed in federal court on peremptory instructions by Judge Evans. He was charged in indictment containing six counts with having made false entries on books of bank resulting in institution's embarrassment.

Elder J. O. Griffin, the evangelist, will preach at First Ward Baptist church (colored) Sunday, March 31, and will continue one week.

THE WEEK IN WALL STREET.

—Rogers in New York Herald.

SCALE OF WAGES WILL BE SETTLED

Carpenters and Painters Are Awaiting an Answer From Contractors to Demands for Increases

CONTRACTS ARE OUT MONDAY.

Monday may bring on a strike among union painters and carpenters and it may bring an increase in pay to the tradesmen. Only time will tell, and while some contractors express a willingness to sign up, it is impossible to learn just how many will do so. Painters ask a raise of from 35 to 40 cents an hour and carpenters from 35 to 37½ cents. Contractors in both lines are not in favor generally, of the raise; but the work is extensive and a strike at this particular time would mean suspension of a great deal of business. The contracting painters are given until April 10 to sign up. Contracting carpenters have until Monday.

BLOCKADE IN YARDS.

All Records For Trains and Cars Are Broken.

A blockade, such as was never before experienced, is now on in the Illinois Central yards, and every available track is being used to store cars. Every extra engine is being pressed into service, and extra men are being put on to assist in relieving the conditions. Over 1,000 cars are stored in the local yards. They are roughly distributed as follows: South yards, 6,000; shops yards, 300; boat yards, Sixth and Campbell streets, 250. This means that every track is filled as it marks the capacity of the yards. As to trains, more freight trains have been run through Paducah yesterday and last night than in years. Eighteen long freight trains, some running in several sections, were east after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and this morning at 6 o'clock. Half a dozen moved to Cairo.

FISCAL COURT CONVENES FOR REGULAR APRIL TERM.

Fiscal court will meet in regular session next Tuesday and among other things to come up, it is probable that the question of submitting a bond issue for good roads in the county to a vote of the people, will be brought up by some of the magistrates. The county road supervisor will be elected in this term, as will the county treasurer. J. C. Utterback at present is the county treasurer and E. B. Johnson is supervisor. Among the half dozen candidates for the office of supervisor some are known not to have any magistrates pledged, while others have as many as three or four pledged. E. B. Johnson stands as good a chance for reelection, as any of the candidates.

EXPECT DEFICIT FOR RIVERSIDE

Will Require at Least $7,500 to Conduct Institution, Making it Cost City Less Than Three Thousand

NEED SOME IMPROVEMENTS.

Anticipation of a deficit of $2,500 in the hospital fund does not frighten the members of the finance committee of the general council, and they have been put upon notice by the trustees that such may be expected. That $2,500 deficit is really all the institution will cost the city, as more revenue than has been appropriated will be returned to the city through the pay wards. Representatives of the board will appear before the general council next week and ask for the improvement of the hospital grounds and the installation of an electric elevator. It will require about $1,000 to do the work, which must be attended to some time.

KNAPP HAS HOPE TO AVERT STRIKE

Chicago, March 30.—Strike preparations in the clash between western railroads and trainmen were halted this morning by the arrival of Chairman Knapp of the interstate commerce commission and Commissioner of Labor Neil from Washington. They represent the government, and came on a mission of mediation. It is hoped the strike will be averted through their good offices.

OLD LYNCH RYE TEAM COMES HERE ON APRIL 21.

The "Old Lynch Rye" baseball team of St. Louis which was booked for a date with the Cuiley team of this city, will not come until Sunday, April 21. The date was changed yesterday afternoon, and it is probable that Dick Brahe will not pitch it as he has signed with the Augusta, Ga., team, in the South Atlantic team and will have left Paducah by that time.

EXTEND WAR ON MOSQUITOES.

New Orleans Officials Plan to Exterminate All of Them.

New Orleans, La., March 30.—The city board of health today began an investigation of common mosquitoes, not the kind which transmit yellow fever, with a view to exterminating them. These mosquitoes are a source of discomfort in New Orleans nearly the year round. The extermination of the fever mosquitoes was begun about two months ago.

FEAST OF REASON AND FLOW OF SOUL

T. P. A. Will Enjoy Banquet at Palmer Tonight And Excellent Program of Speeches Will be Delivered

SPECIAL COMES FROM ST. LOUIS.

When the 125 members of the Travelers' Protective association sit down to their banquet tonight, the Palmer House dining room will be the scene of another brilliant event. A special car with 42 St. Louis enthusiasts will arrive this afternoon at 5 o'clock and delegations from Nashville Memphis and Louisville will be present to participate in the banquet.

An after-dinner speaking program composed of local speakers and the visitors will be given as follows:

T. B. Harrison, "T. P. A., As Power in This Country;" Earl Palmer, "Use of the Drummer From a Practical Business Man;" J. T. Donovan, "How the Best Service Can Be Gotten From Transportation Companies;" J. Benedict, "Why the T. P. A. Should Become a 'Benedict.'"

REHKOPF EXEMPTIONS.

Personality Appraised By Trustee Yesterday.

Trustee A. E. Boyd appraised the personal effects of E. Rehkopf, bankrupt, yesterday afternoon and found they amounted to $660. This is claimed by his wife and by Mrs. Earl Walters. $304.50 is allowed to Mr. Rehkopf. The exemptions allowed Mr. Rehkopf are $1,000 from the homestead; $80, for a year's provisions; $70 for provender for his stock; two mules and one wagon.

WILL VISIT THIS CITY

Mr. Lee Eaker has received word that N. W. Cadie, of Cleveland, O., grand chief engineer, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, will visit the local division Monday night.

CLEARINGS PASS
TEN MILLION MARK*First Quarter of Year Shows Remarkable Gain

Spring Retail Trade Rivals Holiday Business and Orders Are in Ahead.

PADUCAH BUSINESS BOOMING.

Bank Clearings$741,904
Same week last year . 566,141
Increase 175,763

For the first quarter of 1907, the total bank clearings were $741,904, 302. Every week, except one, showed an increase over the corresponding period of 1906, and the total increase for the quarter ending tonight, is $1,300,050. Assuming that the remainder of the year will at least equal the first quarter in the increase shown, 1907 will show over $5,000,000 increase over 1906. The increase of 1906 over 1905 was $4,700,000. But the first quarter of the year may be reckoned probably below the average for the year, and Paducah Banks may make an even greater showing.

In the first quarter, the largest single weekly increase was $253,677; while the one week that showed a decrease, it was only $33,212. The largest week's clearings were $1,040,247, while the smallest figures for one week were $579,887. This week's increase is significantly large and may be attributed largely to the activity in the local stores from the spring and Easter trade. When the increase from the last quarter in the year, with the heavy fall and holiday business, is shown, the year's increase probably will go above $6,000,000.

Heavy Retail Trade.

All the surface display that prosperity brings; with nature particularly exuberant in gorgeous tints; and with quality the keynote as in the Christmas trade, finds Easter in Paducah bearing much of the earmarks of the holiday season. And the volume of the Easter trade among the merchants shows up not at all insignificantly compared with the Christmas record.

There is, however, this limitation. The big business is being done by the stores that supply articles for personal adornment. Of course, the usual swell of spring business is felt among all the stores, from the annual renovation in household affairs at this time of the year. But it is in the dry goods stores, and in the men's furnishings stores, with the shoe stores keeping up a good third, that Easter trade and Easter prosperity is felt.

While the buyers for the stores have managed to make a display of fabrics and dress incidentals, which have fully satisfied the feminine heart, the general public knows nothing of the worry and hard efforts it has required to accomplish it. "We are buying just twelve months ahead on certain lines, in order to get anything at all," was one buyer's plaintive comment on the situation in the wholesale trade. "In long gloves and all domestic goods, it is almost impossible to get anything, and the people have willingly paid the higher prices, only because the people have plenty of money."

Said another merchant who usually keeps his finger on the pulse of wholesale conditions: "I ordered one case of table damasks three months ago. I haven't heard anything of them and don't expect to inside of another six or eight months. All the mills are running with orders for twelve months ahead."

The pre-Easter buying has this peculiarity. Mostly uncut goods are being bought. Trade in the ready-made lines almost has ceased, as every woman wants a specially made gown for the Easter season. As a consequence, every dressmaker in the city is head over heels in work, and the millinery stores—well, the "fit" in the Chicago grain exchange would look orderly compared with them tonight.

Presented Today.

Crate Gardner, colored, of Marshall county, who was arrested last evening by Wade Brown, deputy United States marshal, will be presented this afternoon before Commissioner W. A. Gardner for alleged bootlegging.

A balm to heal the hurts of pain,
A peace surpassing woe.
Lift up your heads, ye sorrowing ones,

And be ye glad of heart,
For Calvary and Easter Day,
Earth's saddest day and gladdest day,
Were just one day apart.
With shudder of despair and loss
The world's deep heart was wrung,
As lifted high upon His cross,
The Lord of Glory hung—
When rocks were rent, and ghostly forms

Stole forth in street and mart;
But Calvary and Easter Day,
Earth's blackest day and whitest day,
Were just one day apart.

Louisville Wedding of Interest in Paducah.

Announcement will be made on Easter in Louisville of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Elizabeth Burnett to Mr. Robert Horner. The wedding will be solemnized on June 11.

Miss Burnett is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Burnett, who formerly lived in Paducah. She is a beautiful girl of more than usual magnetism and charm, and has been one of the most popular girls in Louisville society since her debut three years ago. She is a granddaughter of the late Henry Burnett, member of congress from Kentucky, and on her mother's side belongs to the Dallar and Soaper families of Henderson, notable in Kentucky's history. She is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Muscoe Burnett, of Paducah, and has many friends in her girlhood home.

Mr. Horner is prominent socially and as a business man in Louisville, where he is at the head of a large cement company. He is an eastern man and belongs to a leading Philadelphia family.

Announcements.

The Paducah High School Alumni association will celebrate "Arbor Day" on Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Washington building on West Broadway. A program will be rendered at the High school auditorium and the trees will be planted in the grounds.

The Cottillion club will have its Easter german on Wednesday evening at the Hotel Craig. A number of visitors will be present for the occasion.

The Matinee Musical club will meet on Wednesday afternoon at the parish house of Grace Episcopal church. It is a miscellaneous program of American composers. The leaders are Miss Lula Reed and Miss Mamie O'Brien. The oratorio, mystery and musical plays will be discussed.

The Delphic club will meet on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at the Carnegie library. The program for the morning is:

1. Barcelona, "The Key of Spain"
- Mrs. Elbridge Palmer.
2. Malaga, "The Garden of Spain"
- Mrs. Frank Parham.

Paducah chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. Louis M. Rieke 703 Jefferson street. An attractive program has been arranged.

The Charity club will have an Easter Tea on Tuesday afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock at the home of the president, Mrs. George Wallace, 320 North Ninth street. There will be a number of attractive features and light refreshments will be served. The club asks a liberal patronage from their friends and the public to further their good work.

The Crescendo club will meet on Thursday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock at the studio of Miss Virginia Newell on North Seventh street. The program will be a Liebling one altogether.

The Woman's club will meet on Thursday afternoon at the parish house of Grace Episcopal church. The business session will be held promptly at 2 o'clock. The open meeting at 3 o'clock is in charge of Civics department of the club, Miss Adine Morton, chairman. The program will include addresses of civic interest as follows:

- "Practical Gardening"—Mr. Saunders A. Fowler.
- "Pure Food"—Dr. Della Caldwell.
- "Paducah Beautiful"—Dr. D. G. Murrell.
- "Civic Beauty"—Judge William Marble.

These will be interspersed with vocal selections.

The Kalosopic club will meet on Friday morning at 10 o'clock with Miss Blanche Hills on North Ninth street. The program is:

1. Current Topics—Miss Hughes.
2. James Sheridan Knowles, "The Hunchback"—Miss Langstaff.
3. Richard Brinley Sheridan, "School for Scandal"—Miss Morrow.
4. Club discussion.

Paducah chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will have the meeting of April on Friday at ternoon. Mrs. C. H. Chamblin will entertain the chapter at the Hotel Craig. The members are asked to come promptly at 2:30 o'clock, as there is some business of importance to come before them. The program features are:

1. Song America.
2. Roll Call Patriotic Sentiments.
3. Paper, "Our National Songs"—Miss Emily Morrow.
4. Reading—Mrs. Roy McKlincy.
5. Music.

The Carnival of Flowers will be given on Friday evening at the Kentucky theater under the auspices of the Paducah chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, for the benefit of the Public Fountain fund.

On the Threshold of the Social Whirl.

The week has been exceptionally quiet socially. It is Holy Week and the church services have been dominant. Even the club meetings have been fewer than usual.

That Society is preparing to don her gala attire, a glance at the calendar for the coming week will show, while there are few special entertainments, the days are quite full. Several of the social clubs will not resume until week after next, owing to other things intervening. The Cottillion club's Easter german will be a social event of interest, and the Carnival of Flowers at the Kentucky by local talent. There are other affairs not calendared, some informal and some just rumors as yet.

Attractive Easter Party For Children.

Master James English is entertaining a number of his friends with a pretty Easter party this afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock at his home on Fountain avenue. The house is prettily decorated for the occasion and many quaint and attractive Easter customs are in evidence.

An Easter Egg hunt is the feature of pleasure. Each child is given a basket and started out to find the gayly-colored eggs that are hid about the grounds. The prize for the greatest number of eggs found is a beautiful live white rabbit.

In the dining room where the refreshments are served, the table is a prettily appointed Easter and Spring time picture. The centerpiece is an arrangement of lilacs forming a nest, with eggs and a family of rabbits in the center. Cut glass border dishes of candy eggs are a bon-bon dishes of candy eggs of gelatine with strawberry and cream and eggshells are the delightful refreshments.

The guests-list includes: Lena Utterback, Irene Flournoy, Dorothy Fowler, Elizabeth Caldwell, Mary Terry Burnett, Jacqueline Rieke, Julia Bradshaw Elsie Eunice Voris, Juliet Thompson, Helen Pulliam, Ruth Hinkle, Jennie Rosina Rasch, Pauline Grassham, Emma Boyd, Louise Campbell, Anna Webb Phillips, Margaret Hinkle, Janie Rivers, Elizabeth Smith, Louella Covington, Jennie Lee Covington, Edith Dysart, Edith Sherrill, Lucy Overbey, Palmer Utterback, Everett Ellis, Sam Caldwell, Jr., David Flournoy, Jr., Muscoe Burnett, Jr., William Hughes William Burnett, Henry Dallar, Palmer Ferguson, Sinnott Meyers, Henry Well, John Fitzpatrick, Joe Pulliam William Walters, Henry Bradley, Jr., Joseph Phillips, Henry Weissinger, Jr., Sam Langstaff, George Langstaff, Jr., Thompson Rivers, James Smith, Jr., Leonard Campbell, Laz Powell, Paily Dysart, Col. Harrison Watts.

Easter Egg Hunts.

The Junior Christian Endeavor society of the Kentucky Avenue Presbyterian church is enjoying an Easter egg hunt this afternoon in the yard of Mrs. E. P. Gibson, Jefferson and Twelfth streets.

The children of the Sunday school of the First Christian church are having a jolly time hunting Easter eggs on the lawn of the Well home at Madison and Sixth streets.

Easter Tea This Afternoon.

An Easter Tea is being given this afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock by the Newell society of the Broadway Methodist church, at the home of Mrs. John W. Little, Fourteenth and Jefferson street. It is an attractive occasion with a musical program and light refreshments.

Houston Social Honors to Mrs. Voris.

Mrs. Victor Voris, who has been visiting her mother Mrs. J. H. Shelley of Dallas, Texas, for several weeks, was the guest the past week of Mrs. Walter B. Sharpe, a prominent society woman of Houston, Texas. That Mrs. Voris is sustaining her happy social charm and has had a number of beautiful parties given in her honor, the following from the Houston papers show:

"Mrs. W. B. Sharpe entertained with a buffet luncheon yesterday afternoon, to which about sixty friends were bidden to meet her guest Mrs. Victor Voris of Kentucky. Mrs. Sharpe's handsome home, with its harmonious and restful furnishing and embellishment, was florally lovely with fragrant spring blossoms. In the living room springerle plants and lavender blossoms were used profusely, and in the Japanese room vases of calla lilies were employed. The serving table was covered with renaisance lace, with broad bands of pompadour ribbon extending diagonally across the board; a delicate tracery of springerle fern outlined these, and venetian glass receptacles filled with pansies carried out the color tone and plan of arrangement. Punch was served in the hall by Mrs. Walker Ellis."

"Mrs. Snyder Carlton entertained four tables of bridge yesterday morning in compliment to Mrs. Victor Voris of Kentucky and Miss Kerr of Sherman. Mrs. Carlton's home was charmingly adorned with daisies as a floral embellishment, and the score cards were decorated with hand-painted daisies with fans attached, which were souvenirs for the guests. Miss Worman won the first prize and Mrs. Voris was presented with a souvenir by the hostess. Among the guests were Mr. Will Jones and Mr. Carlton."

"Mrs. Will Jones will entertain with bridge Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. W. B. Sharpe's guest, Mrs. Victor Voris of Kentucky."

Mrs. Voris was also a guest at a pretty sweet pea luncheon given by Mrs. Bryan Heard and Mrs. J. W. Parker. She assisted her hostess, Mrs. Sharp in receiving at a Golf Tea on the Golf Links. She was in the receiving line at a conspicuous social reception given by Mrs. Henry B. Fall in honor of Miss Amelia Bingham, the actress and was a guest at two fashionable musical receptions that of Mrs. Frederick Hanford and her pupils in the Rice Hotel parlors, and Mrs. Thurwell Fay's at her home. Mrs. Voris was the guest of honor in a private yacht, with Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Sharp and Mr. and Mrs. Snyder Carlton to Galveston, and visited later in Beaumont and Humbert, Texas.

Dual Birthday Party.

Master Walter Hills Troutman and Master Eulis Wesley Orr were the hosts of a delightful party on Tuesday evening at the Troutman home on South Third street, in celebration of the thirteenth birthday of each lad, who were born same day, and the same hour and are life long friends. It was a most enjoyable occasion. Games and music were features of pleasure. Delightful ices and cakes were served during the evening. The house was prettily decorated with red and white carnations and the color-motif was carried out in the attractive refreshments.

Those present were: Misses Mabel Troutman, Ruth Mitchell, Lillie Yopp, Mary Gholson, Frances Brooks, Opal Brandon, May Beyers, Nellie Broyles, Laura Augustus, Rita

Brooks, Nellie Keithley, Mollie Standford, Zulena Yopp, Ruth Hummel, Beulah Gholson, Annie Dugan, Vivian Reeves, Launa Gideon; Masters Lester Orr, John Kopf, Sanders Keithley, Harry Morgan, Oscar Reeves, Glenn Orr, Frank Albritton, Louis Standford, Oscar Gideon, Robert Reeves, Louis Brooks, Paul Dugan, Edward Houser, Vane Hotchkiss, Joseph Yopp, Stahl Gholson, James Todd, David Singery, Earl Moore, Clyde Mitchell, Fred Kelley, Frank Page.

Crescendo Club.

The Crescendo club had a "Mother's" afternoon on Thursday at the studio of Miss Newell, that was a very delightful occasion. The mothers of the club members were the honor guests and each was permitted to bring one friend. The program was a very attractive one and was rendered entirely by the younger music pupils of Miss Newell, those from the first to fifth grade. There were solo, duet and trio features.

Choral Club.

The Choral club held a pleasant meeting on Thursday evening at the Kentucky avenue Presbyterian church, which has been selected as the regular meeting place. The club is doing some practice work in choruses now; later they will go in the more serious work of oratorios. The membership is constantly growing, and much interest in being evidenced. It is hoped to make the society a permanent one in Paducah. Mr. A. G. Lautemayer is the leader.

Kalosopic Club.

An interesting meeting of the Kalosopic club was held on Friday morning with Miss Kathleen Whitefield at her home on Kentucky avenue. "Current Topics" was presented very attractively by Mrs. Edward H. Bringham in opening. "The Later Comedies of Shakespeare" was cleverly discussed by Miss Kathleen Whitefield. "The Historical Plays of Shakespeare and King John" was entertainingly covered by Miss Hallie Hisey. The club discussed "Twelfth Night" by acts.

Delphic Club.

The Delphic club had a very delightful meeting on Tuesday morning at the Carnegie library. Mrs. Annie Hughes Morrow discussed very interestingly "The Spanish Schools of Painting." "Modern Art in Spain" as featured by Goya, Fortuny, Velasquez, was attractively reviewed by Miss Morrow.

Box Social.

The ladies of the Cumberland Presbyterian church gave a box party at the residence of Mrs. Hardison, 1728 Clay street on Tuesday evening. It was a pleasant occasion and greatly enjoyed. The luncheon was eaten in picnic style.

Birthday Party of Interest Here.

Misses Christine and Katherine Materfield, the little daughters of Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Waterfield, entertained quite a number of their little friends Monday afternoon with a party in honor of their birthdays. Miss Christine was eight years old and Katherine arrived at her sixth birthday, both of their birthdays coming on the 25th. Cake and cream were served and all the lads and lassies had quite a nice time. We hope these little ladies will have many more such happy affairs.—Mayfield Monitor.

Johnson-Lardell.

Miss Ida L. Johnson, of Paducah, and Mr. William P. Lardell, of Champaign, Ill., were married in Chicago yesterday and will spend the summer at Duluth, Minn.

About People.

Miss Dow Husbands and Miss Helen Decker will leave next week for Battle Creek, Mich., for a visit. Miss Marjorie Scott returned home today from Indianola, Florida, where she has been the guest of her friend, Miss Lucy Bruen, of Webb, City, Mo., for six weeks.

Miss Blanche Hills is expected home Monday from a delightful series of visits in Detroit, Ann Arbor, Lapeer, and other Michigan cities. Miss Hills was the recipient of much social attention during her round of visits.

Miss Robbie Loving, of 521 Monroe street arrived home on Thursday from a delightful visit in Denver, and other Colorado points. Miss Loving has been gone all winter.

Miss Florence Loeb, who is attending the college of music in Indianapolis, has arrived to spend the Easter holidays with her mother, Mrs. Reuben Loeb, of Broadway and Fifth street.

Miss Dorothy Langstaff arrived home this week from Kemper Hall, Kenosha, Wis., where she is at school, to spend Easter. Miss Faith Langstaff, who has been in Chicago for several days, returned with her.

Miss Katherine Quigley, who is attending the Sophie Newman college in New Orleans, returned home on Thursday for the Easter holidays. She will divide her visit with her grandparents, Colonel and Mrs. Q. Q. Quigley, in Arcadia, and her aunt, Mrs. George Langstaff, Jr., on Kentucky avenue.

Mrs. Hubbard W. Blanchard, of Boston, Mass., will visit Mrs. Hubbard S. Wells and Mrs. George B. Hart in April. Mrs. Blanchard is pleasantly remembered here from former visits and some attractive recitals she gave. She will give either a Shakespeare or Tennyson recital under the auspices of the Matinee Musical club while here.

Miss Burford Foley, of New York, will arrive Tuesday evening to be the guest for several days of Miss Ethel Brooks and attend the Easter german. Miss Foley has been visiting Miss Florence Schrader in Indianapolis and will accompany Miss Anita Wood to Wichita, Kan., when she returns home.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Sanders, Miss Sarah Sanders and Mr. and Mrs. Hughes McKnight and daughter, who have been spending the winter in town, have opened their country home "Grey Gables" for the summer.

The First Gas.

Soon after Argand invented his lamp, William Murdoch, a Scottish inventor, showed the world a new way of lighting a house. It has long been known that fat or coal, when heated, gives off a vapor or gas which burns with a bright light. Indeed, it is always a gas that burns, and not a hard substance. In the candle or in the lamp the flame heats the oil, which comes up to it through the wick and thus causes the oil to give off gas. Now Murdoch, in 1797, put this principle to a good use. He heated coal in a large vessel and allowed the gas which was driven off to pass through mains and tubes to different parts of his house. Whenever he wanted a light he let the gas escape at the end of the tube in a small jet and lighted it. Here was a lamp without a wick. Murdoch soon extended his gas pipes to his factories, and lighted them with gas. As soon as it was learned how to make gas cheaply, and conduct it safely from house to house, whole cities were rescued from darkness by the new illuminant.—S. E. Foreman in St. Nicholas.

Memory.

Somebody of a psychological turn of mind once asked Lord Rosebery, "What is Memory?" "Memory," Rosebery replied promptly but somewhat pensively, "memory is the feeling that steals over us when we listen to our friends' original stories."

NEWS OF KENTUCKY

I. C. Is Fined.

Hopkinsville, Ky., March 30.—A fine of $50, the limit allowed by law, was assessed against the Illinois Central Railroad company this afternoon in trial of indictment charging the railroad company with desecrating Sabbath in keeping section gang engaged on Sunday in repairing the track near this city. A fine of $40 was agreed upon in another and similar indictment, while a third was dismissed.

Eloped From Melber.

Fulton, Ky., March 30.—While their parents were soundly sleeping, Grundy Thomas and Miss Beatrice Nail, of Melber, silently arose from their downy beds and stole from their homes to the depot where they met and boarded the fast train for Fulton. On arriving here the wedding party went to the New Century hotel to await Esq. Futrell's arrival at his office. About 7:30 they proceeded to the magistrate's office where they were pronounced husband and wife.

Population Cannot Fill Theater.

Maysville, Ky., March 30.—Sardis, a small town of about 150 inhabitants, in the southwestern part of this county, eighteen miles from this city, is one of the most progressive towns of its size in this section. Recently several of its well-to-do citizens organized a bank, which has grown in favor. The last improvement is an opera house, which will be dedicated Saturday night in true country fashion. It is 75x45 feet, has a seating capacity of 500, a modern stage, auditorium chairs, curtains, etc., and is the property of J. M. Wheat. The Hon. George W. Adair, of this city, will be the speaker of the occasion, while a Cincinnati orchestra will furnish the instrumental music.

COL. TRANHAM RETURNS.

Hopes for Settlement of Wage Scale Next Week.

Col. John Trantham, representative from this district in the Brotherhood of Railway Firemen, returned from Chicago this morning to spend Easter with his family. He has been attending the long drawn-out conference between Illinois Central officials and the executive committee, and no settlement has been reached yet. Col. Trantham has nothing to say of the meeting, but hopes that an agreement will be reached Monday or Tuesday. The firemen want certain concessions, and the fact that the conference has lasted more than two months, indicates that the road does not intend to agree to them. A strike will inevitably result if the concessions are not granted and it will be a general tying up of business.

It's about all some people can do to keep from being done.

Daily Thought.

"Step softly among human hearts and leave so much kindness along life's pathway, that gladness shall spring up bearing tribute in the cool eventide of the world's glad Easter.—Croft.

OUR HOSPITAL.

Municipal economy may be pressed too hard, especially in the case of a hospital, and the effort to make Riverside self-supporting, must be made at the expense of the charity patients, if anybody. The last general council was liberal with the institution, and met all the demands of the board of trustees, and then the overdraft was not startling. The figures principally were made to look large by including a deficit of long standing for the purchase of the ground, with which the present management has had nothing to do. The city allows the hospital $5,000, and estimates that the hospital will bring $5,000 revenue into the city. Thus the expense and revenue of the institution balance. The revenue comes from pay patients. The expense is incurred in caring for the charity patients. No retrenchments dare be made in the pay wards, because the result would be the loss of patients, and the curtailment of revenue. If the board retrenches at all it must retrench in the charity ward. From the report submitted by Dr. Frank Boyd and President Lindsey, of the board of councilment, it would seem that the expense is down to a minimum now. The city is endeavoring to give the charity patients the best medical and surgical attention and nursing possible. A human life, no matter how humble, is above consideration in dollars and cents. Of course, economy dictates that the surgeons in charge go to unnecessary expense in experimenting or equipping the institution with elaborate apparatus merely to save themselves some personal expense or inconvenience, or to be wasteful in the use of the appropriation. They are accountable to the city for every dollar spent and should make every dollar go as far as possible. When they have done this, the city should not begrudge the institution a penny. How the institution is conducted is apparent from the fact that every pay ward is filled and many applicants are turned away. If the institution was large enough to accommodate all who seek admission, it would be self-sustaining, and furnish all the revenue needed. There are improvements now needed, and not the least is to the grounds. It is a disgrace that Riverside hospital has stood there so long on bare unsodded ground, conspicuous from the river as a plain brick building rising out of a bed of ugly clay, behind a trellis over some backwater. From the street the same unpleasant prospect greets the eye. Paducah is setting a bad example for her citizens in the uncared condition of her hospital grounds.

Says the Kentucky State Journal: Verily he gets his reward. After reading ex-Senator Joe Blackburn's savage attack on the alleged Kentucky machine and his prophesy of dire results to the Democratic ticket, President Roosevelt feeling that such subservency was worthy of reward, selected him, so the dispatches state, Chief of Administration of the Canal Zone, his place being analogous to that of Gov. Magoon, before the latter's transfer to Cuba. It is understood that Commissioner Blackburn's detail will bring to him an increased salary, which may amount to as much as $14,000 per annum. We used to love old Joe, but since he has apparently turned his back on Democracy and become a traitor to the party which honored him for thirty odd years, we bid him adieu and trust that he will be happy with his new found friends.

Joe has forgotten what the party did for him during the 30 years, in the bitter memory of what it did to him the odd year. The State Journal should remember old Joe acquired that venomous style of conversation in talking about Republicans. We feel charitable rather than honored in making a place for the old Democratic warrior.

Fourteen million people outside the United States own allegiance to her. In some of these, notably, Alaska, allegiance was the milk on which their citizens were reared. Others take their allegiance like medicine, while the people of Porto Rico, used to a pretty coarse diet of patriotism, find the new American brand quite palatable. We haven't quite as many millions as has England, and don't care. Fourteen millions is a good start considering how unsettled the world was before we went into the insular possession business, and really this number has proved embarrassing at times. However, our institutions, like our Anglo-Saxon natures, are elastic and we have been able to accommodate the colonies without disrupting the union, tarnishing the flag or tearing the constitution.

Nicaragua must be the Central American bully. All the other little fellows are now talking of gang whipping Nicar. Zelaya, the president, has ambitions to be dictator of all Central America. At least, that is what his enemies are saying to stir up Costa Rica and Guatemala to join Salvador and Honduras against him.

Former United States Senator Teller wept when he considered the Colorado senatorial situation. But then, Mr. Teller might be expected to manifest more pessimism over the situation than other people.

"Churnless butter" is a product, which a Nashville company has been organized to manufacture, but when they put it on the market the pure food commission will compel them to label it "oleo."

We believe the federal census bureau has not done Paducah justice in matter of population; but, at that, our 22,464 looks big beside Cairo's 13,910.

Better put two suits of flannels under that new Easter suit.

WINTER RESORT

Dr. D. F. Reeder Tells of Sanitation of Isthmus

Rigid Purity of Life Necessary to Good Health in Tropics, Says Hospital Physician.

WORK OF BIG DITCH GOES ON.

Dr. D. F. Reeder who recently returned from Panama left last night with his wife for the east and later they will sail for Panama, where Dr. Reeder will resume his work in the Ancon hospital. A year ago today, Dr. Reeder who then lived in this city and was associated with Dr. J. W. Pendley, went to Panama under the civil service and after spending ten months there, returned to his bride in Paducah. In his ten months on the isthmus, Dr. Reeder became thoroughly familiar with conditions in the canal zone, and especially with health conditions.

His work was in the Ancon hospital in Panama City on the Pacific ocean side of the isthmus. This hospital has a capacity of 1,000 patients a day, and averages 500 patients. He was one of a number of physicians carried to the zone by the government to make conditions there sanitary, and as far as possible, make it healthful for the officers and laborers. Before he left, he saw Panama City as sanitary as Paducah and with probably no more sickness.

Dr. Reeder was in the famous Culabra cut when President Roosevelt made his trip over the canal zone. Here he saw the president accompanied by the canal officials, wading through mud knee-deep, and in the rain without any protection. The president overlooked nothing, going into the private residences and laborers' huts, and particularly asking the women if they were satisfied with life on the isthmus and the official government. Occasionally he stopped to kiss a baby or pat its cheek.

A Winter Resort.

"Panama City now," says Dr. Reeder "is becoming a winter health resort, under the careful management of the American medical corps. This city that formerly was so dirty and unhealthy, now presents a most attractive appearance and it was accomplished by the simplest sanitary measures, some of which have been advocated or practiced by the Paducah board of health. The first great problem was to eliminate the mosquitoes. This was done by draining every stagnant pool, by cutting away all the weeds and underbrush and the luxuriant tropical growth, which are natural breeding places for the germ carrying mosquitoes. The dread yellow fever has about disappeared there, though in other parts of the country, where the old conditions still obtain, there is no change in the death rate. I believe American medical science can overcome any of the sanitary problems of the Central and South American countries."

Labor conditions on the zone are improving simultaneously with the sanitary conditions. The West Indian negroes from Dr. Reeder's observation, are the poorest specimens on the isthmus, and they are being replaced by Italians, Spaniards, Austrians and a few American laborers. There are no Chinese or Japanese except a few here and there left from the former French effort to dig the canal. An interesting story of the Chinese is told by Dr. Reeder. Several hundred of the Chinese, after the French threw up the job as hopeless, became intensely homesick and despondent from ill health. It is said that practically all of these Chinese committed suicide within a few hours of one another.

Heat Not Severe.

The heat on the isthmus is not severe except at noon when it is oppressive. In the evenings it is necessary at times to sleep under blankets. The rainy season lasts nine months in the year, and some rain falls every day in that period. However, the actual operations of digging the canal go on all the time, under the adverse conditions. Dr. Reeder expects to see the canal finished in seven years. The dirt excavated is used in filling up swamps.

That extremes of climatic conditions have the same effect on the human system, is proven in a comparison of the effects of drinking intoxicants in the tropical zones, and in the arctic zones. It is suicide absolutely, to drink alcoholic beverages in the canal zone. Those laborers who do drink, and they are now confined mostly to the native laborers, are the most susceptible to disease and the death rate among them is appalling. In his hospital experience Dr. Reeder became convinced that health could be retained in the zone only by rigid purity of life in every way. It is a well-known fact that north-polar region explorers shun intoxicants as their most deadly foe.

Altogether, Dr. Reeder thinks that the canal zone has not been overpraised by the president and other fair-minded observers. Most of the bad reputation the canal has received, has come from laborers and officers who have been discharged and who give as their excuse for returning, the unhealthy conditions. Dr. Reeder expects to be gone on this trip for eight months, his stay to be determined by his wife's health. After that time, he expects to return to Paducah and engage in the practice of medicine. It is probable that they will see Europe before their return.

DISEASED CATTLE

Cannot Be Shipped in Here by River Any More.

Thomas Sanders, humane officer, will at once begin making trips to the river when packets arrive to inspect cattle. Often diseased cattle sometimes badly crippled are shipped here. Since he instituted his weekly trips to stockyards and livery stables he has found many horses and cattle to be placed in the veterinary hospital.

ALUMNI

WILL HOLD EXERCISES, SCHOLARS TO PLANT TREE.

Arbor Day Celebration Scheduled For Washington Building Next Monday.

Plans for the Arbor Day celebration at the Washington school building have been completed by the Paducah High School Alumni association. The exercises will be held next Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The exercises in the building will be as follows:

Piano duet, by the Misses Puryear.
Soprano solo, by Miss Caroline Ham.
Tenor solo, by Mr. Richard Scott.
Soprano solo, by Mrs. Lella Wade Lewis.
Address by Mr. Saunders A. Fowler.

After these exercises everybody will repair to the school lawn, where the children will plant three trees, and close the ceremonies by singing "America." The Civics department of the Woman's club has been especially invited to be present.

March Is a Trying Month.

"Nor love, nor honor, wealth nor power,
Can give the heart a cheerful hour,
When health is lost. Be timely wise,
With health all taste of pleasure flies."

March is conceded by local physicians to be the worst month in the year in Paducah. In the point of the extent of sickness. The quick changes in the temperature, warm one day, chilly, with penetrating winds the next affect the physical condition probably more than any season of the year.

The only safeguard therefore is to get yourself in good condition. The liver, the blood, the kidneys, the skin should be in first class order or you can not stand the trying month. Osteopathy, quickly naturally restore any disarrangement to any of these essentials of good health. The torpid liver, the disordered kidneys, the poor blood supply or circulation readily yield to its health giving methods.

The treatment is simplicity itself, sane, rational, without the use of harmful drugs. It cures by scientific manipulation to restore the normal functions to each organ. It recognizes, appreciates and uses proper diet, air, water, exercise and other natural hygienic measures, too.

A trite saying is "Seeing is believing," so I shall be pleased to refer you, if you are interested, to any number of people you know well who can attest to the virtues of the treatment in liver, stomach, bowels, rheumatic, asthma, malaria, neuralgia and nervous condition.

Call me at 1407 or call at my office, 516 Broadway, at any time between 9 and 12 a. m. or 2 and 5 p. m. Dr. G. B. Froese.

NO INTERVENTION.

Mexico Will Go No Further Than Friendly Offer.

Mexico City, March 30.—"Mexico will on no condition join the United States to intervene between Nicaragua and Honduras," was the positive declaration of Minister of Foreign Affairs Mariscal.

Minister Mariscal said: "President Diaz has been asked to act with the United States in an endeavor to establish an armistice. It was pointed out at the foreign office that nothing was further from Mexico's intention than bringing pressure to bear on the warring nations further than to offer the friendly offices of the republic."

"This government is ready at any time to join the United States in offering its good offices in friendly mediation, but will go no further. Should President Roosevelt decide to intervene he will be obliged to act independently, as far as President Diaz is concerned."

"Mexico," said the minister, "has no interest whatever in either Honduras or Nicaragua. She has no navy with which to patrol the American coast, and feels under no obligations to incur the enormous expense of equipping an army of intervention."

"TATER DAY."

Benton Citizens Exchange Greetings On Monday.

Monday, April 1, is "Tater Day" at Benton, and residents of Marshall county who live in other parts will come back home as readily as if it were Christmas, or a family reunion. "Tater Day" is the most observed of all annual occurrences, and Benton will be filled to the overflowing Monday. "Tater Day" comes

April 1 and potatoes are distributed among the farmers. It is really a big exchange of potatoes of every variety, a product for which Marshall county is noted. Captain Jim Lemon, editor of the Mayfield Messenger, is an old resident of Benton, and never misses this day. Dr. W. S. Stone, who this year moved to Princeton, has never missed the day in years. Dr. Stone passed through this morning and Captain Lemon will come through tomorrow.

MAY FINISH CANAL IN 7 YEARS

Member of Congressional Commission Tells of the Work.

Kansas City, Mo., March 30.—Representative Charles F. Scott of Iowa, Kas., a member of the congressional committee that has just returned from a trip to the isthmus, tonight told of the canal conditions in an address at Kansas City, Kas. He said in part:

"So far as the excavations are concerned, the bulk of the work should be done in six or seven years. The construction of the great dam at Gatun and the building of the stupendous locks probably will protract the period of completion."

"The men on the works, however, really seem to believe that if everything goes right the canal should be finished within seven years."

BRIBERY TO "TIP" THE PORTER
New Indiana Law Accidentally Cuts Off Sleeping Car Men's "Graft."

Indianapolis, March 30.—It was discovered today, on the eve of publishing the laws passed at the recent legislative session, that the person who gives a sleeping car porter or a waiter on a dining car a tip will be guilty of bribery under the new statutes. The bill was introduced by Senator Mock and was intended to protect shippers against freight conductors, whom the shippers were frequently compelled to tip in order to get cars. The bill makes it bribery for any railroad employee to accept anything of value from any person having business with the company, and also makes it bribery for any persons to give anything of value for services rendered or to be rendered as such agent or employee. The penalty is a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $100.

WILL ARREST HEARST.
Heated Campaign in Chicago Getting Hotter.

Chicago, March 30.—The most villainous municipal campaign in the history of Chicago, which has had some fierce campaigns heretofore, reached a sensational stage today when five suits containing six distinct counts were prepared on behalf of Frederick A. Busse, Republican candidate for mayor, against William Randolph Hearst, charging him with libel through derogatory and defamatory articles and cartoons published in Hearst's Chicago papers. In each suit the amount of damages is fixed at $25,000. It is intimated that additional suits may bring the total damages asked up to $400,000. The purpose is to have Hearst arrested on his arrival. He has started from New York with lawyers.

Pleasant Reminder.
Among the passengers on board an excursion steamer making a tour around the coast was a wealthy retired plumber. One day a number of whales were sighted, and the plumber was in ecstasies.

"Pretty sight isn't it?" remarked a lady to him.

"Beautiful, mum beautiful!" replied the plumber. "Why, when they scoot out water like that it just reminds me of burst water pipes."—London Tit-Bits.

Germany's New Railway Rates.
The new German railway passenger rate is 2.68 cents a mile, first-class, with no reduction for round trip tickets and no free baggage. For express trains the rates will be higher, causing a substantial addition to the cost of travel. The object is to keep local passengers off the long distance trains. For second-class the rate is 1.72 cents, with an additional charge for baggage and for express trains. Railway tickets are taxed. This adds to the traveler's expense. The density of traffic averages much greater in Germany than in the United States.—Baltimore Sun.

THEATRICAL NOTES

AT THE KENTUCKY.
Tonight, The Mack-Leone Company
in "The Girl of the Streets." Thursday night, complimentary lecture under the auspices of The Knights of Columbus, "Knighthood Is Yet in Flower" by the Hon. Le Vega Clements, of Owensboro, Ky.

Friday night and Saturday matinee,
"The Flower Carnival", under the auspices of the D. A. R.

Mack-Leone Company.
The Mack-Leone company's engagement at The Kentucky closes tonight when a "Girl of the Streets" will be presented. This bill is, as the title indicates, a melodrama, but its treatment is quite unlike the present day form of melodramatic writing which is too often meaningless or disagreeably exaggerated and distorted in plot and character drawing.

Tonight's offering is said to be free from the stigma of such writing and tells in a clean, legitimate manner, a pretty story with a happy mixture of comedy and pathos. Miss Leone has an ingenue role which forms a contrast to the usual he-roines local playgoers are used to seeing her portray. The other characters pleasingly contrast rural and urban types and work out the interesting plot in a pleasing manner.
The company is cast to excellent advantage and the offering should prove an entertaining one.

Girl of the Golden West.
During the second act of "The Girl of the Golden West" in which Blanche Bates comes to the Kentucky theatre on April 8, the action takes place during a raging storm. The scene is the cabin of the girl on the slope of Cloudy mountain and the dwelling offers a place of refuge to Ramirez, the road agent, and the posse under Jack Rance, the sheriff, which is pursuing the bandit. The ferocity of the storm prevents Ramirez leaving the cabin and thus eventually places him in the hands of Rance, officer of the law, and the bandit's rival. Nothing that David Belasco has ever done in the way of stage effects exceeds in realism this storm. The wind whirling down the mountain side; the whirling sleet and snow, which drives in through the door as the storm blows it open,
the rattling of the windows so and the circulation of chilling air on the stage are all so naturally accomplished that an audience invariably feel an inclination to turn up its coat collars and put on its wraps. It is a matter of fact that the orchestra and that portion of the audience occupying the first few rows of orchestra seats, do actually shiver, because the wind which drives the snow before it, in reality, is a cold wind, manufactured behind the scenes and blown across the stage and out into the house. This mountain storm has been called one of the most thrilling and impressive bits of realism ever credited to a producer.

Rainfall to the extent of .36 inches was little more than sufficient to settle the dust. As for having any effect on the river, at this point, it was not felt. The river fell a full foot since yesterday morning, bringing the stage down to 39.7. Business is a little better than fair. The stage March 30 last year was 31.

Button Carroll went out on the Golden Rod as pilot yesterday up the Tennessee river.

The large number of third, or "cub" clerks now running on the packets, suggests two things. Either the boats have more business than the regular force can handle, or the men higher up are dropping out of steamboat life, necessitating breaking in new men. It probably is both.
In Paducah, most of the packets have cub clerks and the Lee liners

also had some on board in this week's trips. One experienced clerk this morning said the increased forces largely is due to the old men quitting the business.

To get back on time and for other reasons, it is probable that the Butterfly will not make the Clarksville trip this week, but will arrive next Wednesday on time to leave for Nashville.

Among the towboats, the Pavonia will arrive Sunday from the Cumberland river with ties.

The Russell Lord will arrive Monday from the Tennessee river with ties for the Ayer-Lord Tie company.
The big Sprague with a bigger tow of coal, passed down last night from Pittsburg for lower Mississippi river points.

The Charles Turner will leave Sunday for the Cumberland river after ties.

The Mary Michael will leave Sunday for the Hatchie river below Memphis after logs for the Ferguson and Palmer mills.

Pete M. Martin is on the Kentucky as third clerk, making his second trip this week.

The Peters Lee arrived this afternoon from Cincinnati with a good trip and went down to Memphis after taking on the local business.

Captain Will Green of the H. A.
Petter Supply company, has returned from a drumming trip.

Not much room is taken up by the little City of Terre Haute at the wharf, and beside the George Cowling and Royal, it looks like a gasoline boat for pleasure purposes; but it is remarkable the amount of freight, principally produce, carried by this boat.

The sheet iron safes are being put on the Clyde at the ways today
and that packet practically new,
probably will be let off the ways next week. The Maude Kilgore also will be a new boat when the repairs are finished.

The City of Saltillo arrived from the Tennessee river last night at 9 o'clock and left at midnight after knocking a big hole in the freight accumulated on the wharves, for St. Louis.

The Savannah arrived today from St. Louis on the up trip to the Tennessee river.

No excursion is planned for the Dick Fowler tomorrow.

Business was fair in the Cairo
trade today.

The George Cowling will make three trips Sunday between Paducah and Metropolis.

The Kentucky will leave this evening for the Tennessee river.

The Joe Fowler in the Evansville
trade made schedule time today.

A big barge was taken out on the dry docks this morning for repairs.

Official Forecasts.

The Ohio, from Evansville to Calro, will continue to fall at slowly increasing rate during the next several days.

The Tennessee from Florence to the mouth, will continue to fall slowly.

The Mississippi from below St.
Louis to Chester, will rise during the next 24 hours. At Cape Girardeau, no material change during the next 12 hours, followed by slowly rising.

The Wabash at Mt. Carmel, will fall slowly during the next 24 hours.

EXCHANGE WIVES.

Two Elgin Men Shock the Whole Community.

Elgin, Ill., March 30.—Dissatisfied with Cupid's original arrangements, two Elgin husbands are said to have swapped their homes and wives and all four persons concerned are reported to be satisfied with the result. They say the breadwinners of the family have only changed boarding houses. William Warner of 466 Cleveland avenue is now living at the home of Mrs. William McPherson, at 464 Cleveland avenue, while Mr. McPherson is the guest of Mrs. Warner, at the Warner home next door. With Warner is his daughter. When asked if there had been an actual exchange of wives effected, all four simply smiled and refused to affirm or deny. They all seem happy, and what ever the conditions are all are familiar with them, as the two homes are but a few cars apart.

The Third Month.
Hats drawn down over ears
As we go;
Lots of unbidden tears
Dally flow.
Pretty petticoats white,
Stiff with starch,
Everywhere meet the sight—
This is March.

Now the sun hustles out
Nice and warm,
But is soon put to rout
By a storm.
First we struggle with floods,
Then we parch,
Nature has lots of moods—
This is March.

Bare-limbed trees softly green
Now are grown,
How they alter the scene
We have known!
To the rear go the fir
And the larch,
Everything is a-strife—
This is March.

SAILOR'S FINGER BITTEN OFF BY HUNGRY SHARK

Washington, March 30.—A curious story illustrating the number and ferocity of the sharks that infest the harbor of Manila is afforded by an incident reported in the mail just received at the insular bureau from the Philippines. This is to the effect that as one of the boats belonging to the little gunboat El Cano was being rowed out to the ship February 9 the plug in the bottom of the boat came out and to prevent it from being swamped J. J. Dunlap, a sailor, belonging to the El Cano, thrust his finger into the hole. The finger was immediately bitten off as if it were amputated by a surgeon, though the amputation in this case was by a shark. As the lost finger was used to pull the trigger of the rifle, the sailor will have to be retired, being incompetent to perform his duty.

Asthma

is extreme difficulty in exhaling air from the lungs, a terrible sensation of long, slow suffocation, caused by uric acid irritation of the tiny pockets in which the blood takes oxygen from the air you breathe.

There are millions of little air pockets in your lungs. When you take a breath, the air enters them through tiny openings which close tight while the blood gives off carbonic acid gas, and takes up oxygen. You then relax the muscles and let the exhausted air out. But if it happens that your blood contains an excess of uric acid, a spasm of the muscular walls of these little air pockets occurs, and the air cannot be expelled. Nothing can be more distressing than an attack of asthma.

Temporary relief is sometimes given by pungent inhalations, but asthma is impossible to cure except by removing the cause—the uric acid. LIFE PLANT has the power of dissolving uric acid crystals. LIFE PLANT passes right into the blood and gently and swiftly dissolves the uric acid wherever it may be lodged. If you suffer from asthma, take LIFE PLANT; it immediately goes to work removing the uric acid cause. Read this proof:

I have had catarrh and asthma, and finally this summer I had rheumatism. Although I have not taken all of one bottle of Life Plant, yet the asthma has left me, catarrh nearly gone, and rheumatism better.

COMMISSIONERS MEET AND ORGANIZE FIRST TIME.

Seven Trustees Named to Handle $40,000 for Industrial Harmony.

Washington, March 30.—Five of the seven trustees of the foundation for promotion of industrial peace, authorized by the recent congress, to take over and administer the $40,000 Nobel Peace Prize, awarded to President Roosevelt and which forms a nucleus of a fund, the income from which is to be used in bringing together in Washington, representatives of capital and labor, with a view to arriving at a better understanding between employers and employees, met today and perfected a permanent organization.

Chief Justice Fuller was elected president, Seth Low, treasurer, and John Mitchell, secretary.

Capital, Labor and Public Represented
Those selected to be members of the "International Peace Committee" of nine, required by the act are: On the part of the public, Archbishop Ireland, Marcus N. Marks, and Ralph M. Easley, of New York, on the part of employers, E. H. Gary, chairman finance committee of the United States Steel Corporation; Lucius Tuttle, president of the Boston and Maine railroad, and J. Gunby Jordan, of Columbus, Ga.; on the part of the employees, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor; Daniel Keefe, president of the Longshoremen's association; Warren S. Stone, president of the International Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

WHERE DID THIS MONEY GO?

Course of Sum of $300,000 Is Being Traced.

San Francisco, Cal., March 30.—Among the witnesses called before the grand jury and briefly examined today were Dr. Ferdinand Butterfield, representing interests with the United States Independent Telephone company; E. Oppenheim, of Los Angeles; Wm. Meade, president of the Central Bank of Los Angeles, and Mr. Sloan, of Los Angeles. Percy Morgan, president of the California Wine Growers' association, and formerly a director of the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph company, was temporarily excused.

The grand jury is directing its efforts to trace the course of the $300,000 said to have been sent here from Los Angeles for the alleged purpose of obtaining a franchise for the Home Telephone company. It is stated that the money was sent to an Oakland bank to the credit of the telephone company then transferred to another bank to the credit of the Empire Construction company, an allied corporation.

SPINSTERS' SPLEEN QUICKLY AROUSED

Demand That City Cease Efforts in Their Behalf

Well Meant Proceedings of General Council to Compel Matrimony Are Stopped.

MATTER IS SERIOUS TO THEM.

Port Dodge, Iowa., March 30.—Thoroughly frightened by the spinsters of Port Dodge, who for five days have waged a tireless and harassing campaign against the ordinance now pending before the city council to force bachelors and spinsters to marry the special committee to which the measure was referred will report adversely to the mayor and the whole council tomorrow night.

"I can stand the men," said C. J. Crawford, chairman of the committee, "but when it comes to being met by a regular dragon in skirts every time the door bell rings and being stormed and raged at until your accuser gets out of breath and then stamps her foot and marches out, hurling a final burst of vituperative epithets at you, I beat retreat. Way, I have been hounded at every turn by these spinsters. They storm and rage, and then they burst into tears and plead and cajole.

"They won't listen to reason. Every argument is met with withering scorn. They band all their friends and relatives on their side, and the men who hold out for the ordinance is sure to lose every friend he has, blast every hope he ever dared to raise.

Sees Need of Ordinance.

"The ordinance is a great need at Port Dodge. Every one knows it is true there are more bachelors and spinsters here than in any other town of its size in the West. A lot of them are rich and have no on depend on them. They should marry by all that is right, but unless compelled to by an ordinance such as this they never will."

Judge Busby, another member of the committee, said:

"Yes we have agreed to an unfavorable report. These women are relentless, and to report that measure for passage would mean to destroy forever a man's hopes of earthly peace, and, if we are to believe the spinsters, place in jeopardy his fate hereafter."

The leaders of the opposition for the start has been Miss Jessie Cameron, matron of Castlewood private school for children. She organized the entire unmarried population of her sex in the town and aroused them to action. She has been untiring in her efforts to defeat the bill and has headed committees, called mass meetings and led organized efforts of every kind.

A delegation of spinsters waited upon Mayor Bennett and remonstrated against the passage of such a measure. The mayor defended the plan and offered to find each one of the party a husband and marry them all free of charge. The offer was not accepted.

Many Seek Helpmeets.

Mayor Bennett is being flooded with letters from various parts of the country from persons who are anxious to find good helpmeets and would locate in Port Dodge if they were able to get mates.

"To these I am replying that I will do all in my power to aid them in their search," said the mayor today. "I hope to officiate at many more marriages before my term of office expires.

"I have received more than a thousand letters so far in regard to the matter. Some of the writers berate me as a crank and mountebank, while the greater number are enthusiastic over the plan suggested."

The mayor would not admit to

WORKERS WHO WHEEL AND WHAT THEY GAIN

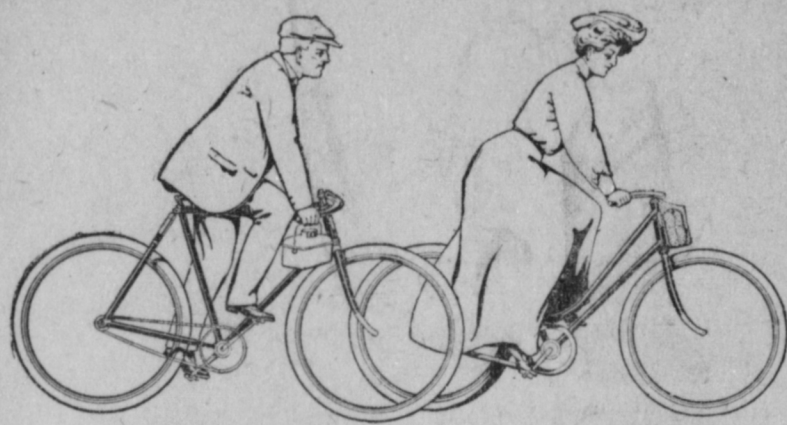

LEGIONS OF RIDERS WHO ARE TRUE TO THE BICYCLE.

Bicycle riders who have been getting into the game again, and who are wondering why they have delayed so long about it are apt to have a feeling of self-consciousness until they gradually realize that literally hundreds of thousands of riders have never given up the wheel at all. It put a rather difficult perspective on bicycling, when they come to know that there were half a million wheels made in the United States in 1906, and that every manufacturer who was forehanded enough to provide for material, expects to increase his output fifty per cent, this year.

These figures, large as they are,

had plenty of reason for self-congratulation. The steady rider has seen his companions who gave up this even, regular exercise grow fat, laggard and short of breath, while he himself has kept in good health as a rule, has enjoyed better digestion, and has muscles that are in better trim and can stand more fatigue, than the average man of his years.

And if this condition is of importance in the case of men riders, it is still more vital so far as women riders are concerned. Nothing better or since the advent of the wheel has done more for women kind, who are virtually barred from the countless forms of athletic sports by which young men prepare themselves for will bear close analysis and their correctness is unquestioned. Manufacturers who are short on essential bicycle parts at this writing are already predicting a famine in the wheel markets, and the country has not heard that sort of a statement before in a good many years. One eastern manufacturer, whose sales are largely made direct to riders, has given out the statement that he had more orders on his books January 1st, 1907, than he ever had before—and his records include the so-called bad years.

The recent general revival of wheeling is simply another proof of the old adage that you can't keep a good thing down. When the fickle public turned its back on the wheel as a pure fad, the bicycle makers trimmed their sails to meet the changed conditions, and for half a dozen years were content to put out their It seemed that no sooner was button touched in the wheel business than the reaction began. It was very slow at first; very gradual, but the bicycle had so many good points that its growth has continued year by year, until at the present time the manufacturers are facing conditions akin to those of ten years ago, just preceding the immense sales of the middle 90's.

And in these ten years those who have never given up the wheel have the hard, exhaustive, money-making years.

By the way, have you ever stopped to think what money a maker of the wheel itself is, to the average salaried worker? Except in the smallest communities, every business man or woman, every clerk and every laborer is directly taxed ten cents a day by the traction companies. Every man or woman who wishes to eat the noon meal at home must pay an additional ten cents every working day for the privilege of doing so. And in the course of a year that means, in round numbers, $30 at least. Add to this the necessary daily trips, the countless errands for which the car is ordinarily used, and the figures will be expanded materially. Then place in the opposite column the tangible gain which comes from the possession of a fleet means of transportation, that is also unequalled for sport and pleasure; take into account the delightful Sunday runs, and all through the summer and autumn the pleasant trips in the cool of the evening and the many excursions out into the fresh air of the country. And with it all there is a distinct gain in health, an improvement in digestion, as well as a comfortable saving of money in your pocket.

Is it any wonder there is a revival in favor of the bicycle?

INFLUENCE OF CATHOLICS

In Anglo-Saxon Countries Brought to Attention of Pope.

Rome, March 29.—The prominent Anglo-Saxon prelates now here have presented to the papal secretary of state, Merry del Val, a memorandum setting forth the importance of the Anglo-Saxon Catholic world. It was stated in the memorandum that the Catholics in the United States, Canada, Ireland Great Britain and the British colonies number in all about 45,000,000, and it was asserted that no Catholics so vigorously took up the cause of the church in its conflict with the French government as the Americans, Irish and English, who were classed as the wealthiest Catholics and as those from whom the Holy See can expect the greatest amount of support.

The memorandum concluded with asking for better representation of the Anglo-Saxons in the sacred college. It is believed that the step taken by the Anglo-Saxon prelates has had considerable effect, and it is even hoped that the pope may consider the list of cardinals to be appointed at the consistory of April 15, with the possibility of the inclusion of an Anglo-Saxon prelate who would be created in pectore, that is to say, that his name would not be published for the present, although his elevation to the sacred college would date from April 15.

Administration Wins.

Louisville, March 30.—Governor Beckham gave another proof of his complete mastery of the Democratic party, when, at the meeting of the state Democratic campaign committee, held at The Seelbach, his choice, Mr. Harvey McCutchen, was selected as permanent secretary of the committee.

In London's new criminal court, on the old Bailey site, prisoners will climb up white marble stairs to reach the dock.

FLOWER CARNIVAL D. A. R. BENEFIT

Those Who Will Participate in the Affair

Dainty Tots and Fair Ladies Who Will Dance and Sing at Kentucky Theater.

BEWILDERINGLY BEAUTIFUL

The Carnival of Flowers is an event which has been eagerly anticipated in Paducah for many weeks. When the rehearsals were first begun amid the chill and gloom of January and February, Friday of Easter week seemed a "dealing in futures" entirely, and now it is hard to believe that Easter, April, the spring-time and the "Carnival of Flowers" are really upon us. All Paducah is in some way identified with this event. Most everybody's child is in it, or some relation is a sponsor, or one's civic pride and patriotism is touched by the cause for which it is given, and there will be no lack of a generous audience at the Kentucky theatre to do the occasion honor. The boxes have all been taken and it will be a gala social event. The program and those taking part, the matrons and their assistants, and the various committees are:

1. Overture—Deal's Orchestra.
2. Tableau and Becker's Spring-tide solo—Miss Mamie Dryfuss, Goddess of Flowers.
3. Butterfly Dance.

Food Wastes in Dyspeptic Stomachs

It seems useless to eat when the stomach can't digest the food. Yet you must eat. Why not then repair your digestion? It can be done. Many ways have been recommended to you, but here is one that is guaranteed. Go to your druggist and get a 50 cent or $1 bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the great laxative compound. It will create for you what nature does not seem to provide—the gastric and peptic juices necessary to digestion. Your lack of them has caused your dyspepsia. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup

Pepsin contains properties that stir the functions of the stomach and liver to activity—that makes it do what it otherwise would not do. It arouses the secretions of the glands which are essential to digestion, and in that way cures indigestion or dyspepsia. Let no dyspeptic say he is incurable. He cannot honestly say so until he has tried Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. One bottle will be sufficient to prove its merits, and that one bottle will only cost you 50 cents or $1 at your druggist.

They Were Cured by Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

I was afflicted seriously with stomach trouble, and had not been able to obtain any relief from the different remedies which I had tried, until I finally heard of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. I purchased a large bottle, and after taking same according to directions, I noticed a great improvement; I then bought two more large bottles, and when they were gone, I had no more trouble. I am in the best of health at the writing and have been ever since I took Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in our town and neighborhood. It has done a great deal of good. So many have used it since I took it; people came to me for medicines around and asked me what kind of medicine I took that did me so much good.

I have used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and was greatly benefited. I had indigestion and stomach trouble for many years and found great relief after using it, and can cheerfully recommend it to the public.

C. K. SLOANINGER, Liberty, Ind.

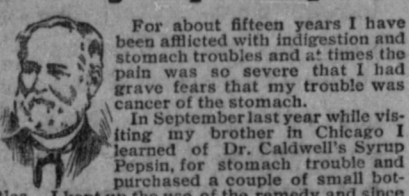

I take great pleasure in informing you of the good Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has done me. Although young in years I have suffered from constipation since my boyhood and have tried numerous remedies and doctor's prescriptions, but have failed to find the cure of your Syrup Pepsin and I gladly recommend it to all who suffer from constipation.

C. J. SIBSON, Memphis, Tenn.

I can cheerfully recommend Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin to any one who has stomach trouble, indigestion or constipation as the best medicine for these complaints that I have ever used. M. H. MILLER, Moweaqua, Ill.

I am glad to give my testimony as to the very excellent qualities of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. I would not be without it in the house. It does all you say it will do, and more too.

THOS. W. BURNS, Wash. Engineer, Bismarck, Ill.

For about fifteen years I have been afflicted with indigestion and stomach troubles and at times the pain was so severe that I had grave fears that my trouble was cancer of the stomach. In September last year while visiting my brother in Chicago I learned of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for stomach trouble and purchased a couple of small bottles. I kept up the use of the remedy and since then I have been free from any stomach trouble, and I am fully persuaded that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has cured me. O. G. RICHARDS, Attorney and Pension Agent, Endora, Kansas.

I can truthfully and willingly say that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is all that it is recommended to be. I have used it and know for myself what I state. I do not think it has an equal for stomach trouble. I have not words to express its value to me and there are many others of my acquaintance and friends who have used it with good results.

MRS. MINERVA E. ROLLINS, Dewey, Ill.

I have given your Syrup Pepsin to our little boy for constipation and have found it very good, and can recommend it to anyone. I think anyone raising a family should not be without it.

Mrs. L. KOSAR, Kansas City, Kans.

One can never tell what day some member of the family will become constipated or have indigestion, jaundice, bloated stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, bad breath, flatulency, lazy liver, weak stomach, sick headache or some other ailment affecting the stomach, liver or bowels, and then Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will be instantly needed.

FREE TEST Those wishing to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin before buying can have a free sample bottle sent to their home by addressing the company. The offer is to prove that the remedy will do as we claim, and is only open to those who have never taken it. Send for it if you have any symptoms of stomach, liver or bowel disease. Guaranteed, permanent, home cure. THE PUBLIC VERDICT: "No Laxative So Good and Sure as DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPsin." This product bears purity guarantee No. 17, Washington, D. C. GOULDS CATCH A BIG SHARK.

Guests on Millionaire's Yacht Quit Swimming After Incident.

A fifteen-foot shark was a temporary passenger on George Gould's yacht, the Atlanta, during his recent cruise in the West Indies. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Gould and their family, Miss Daly, Courtlandt Nicol, and Robert H. Russell.

When off Matanzas Mr. Gould's sons thought they would try their luck at fishing. They wanted to land something big, and rigged their tackle accordingly. All day long they fished off the stern of the moving yacht without result. The young anglers were about to vote the sport very dull; when George Jr., got a bite that almost snapped the line. He tried to haul in, but the catch refused to be hauled.

Assistance was called, and at the end of a long and hard fight, a flapping, gasping shark was landed on the yacht's deck.

When asked about the big fish last night, Mr. Gould said that the shark was a fifteen-footer—by fisherman's measurement—though a carpenter's rule might reduce the length a foot or two.

"I'll tell you one thing," said Mr. Gould, "after the landing of that shark swimming was eliminated from our program of sports. Previously we had all enjoyed a couple of dips a day."

Mr. Gould was asked if the specimen was a man-eater.

"I'm not up on sharks," he replied, "but all of us refused to give him the benefit of a doubt. And no experiments were made in the interests of scientific accuracy."

"Did your son keep him as a trophy?"

phy?"

"Keep him. Why, he'd have filled a stateroom. We threw him 'overboard.'"—New York Times.

CALLS IRISH HOPES ABSURD

Lord Rosebery Says Great Britain Never Will Tolerate It.

London, March 30.—Presiding at a meeting of the council of the Liberal league held here this afternoon, Lord Rosebery said Great Britain would never tolerate a separate Irish parliament. Such a proposal, he said, went far beyond anything the late Mr. Gladstone intended. Continuing, the speaker said he doubted if the government's promised measure for Ireland would go to extremes, but it was a pity the government's principal men were making speeches leading the country to believe that something radical was intended.

S.S.S. OUR RECORD 40 YEARS OF CURES

The value of S. S. S. as a blood purifier has been thoroughly proven by its forty years of successful service in the treatment of blood and skin diseases of every character. It is the best known and most generally used blood medicine on the market today, because in the forty years of its existence it has not disappointed those who have used it, and as a result of its universal success in curing disease it has made friends EVERYWHERE. It has been on the market for forty years, and its record in that time is one of which we are justly proud—it is a record of forty years of cures. As a remedy for Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Sores and Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Contagious Blood Poison and all diseases arising from an impure or poisoned condition of the blood, S. S. S. has no equal. It goes into the circulation and thoroughly cleanses it of all impurities and makes a complete and lasting cure of these troubles and disorders. It furnishes to weak, polluted blood, rich, health-giving and health-sustaining qualities, and as this pure, fresh stream circulates through the system, all parts of the body are invigorated and made strong and healthy. S. S. S. is the only blood medicine on the market that can claim absolute freedom from minerals in any form. This great medicine is the product of nature's forests and fields, and is made from the healing, cleansing juices and extracts of roots, herbs and barks. It is, therefore, in addition to being a certain cure for blood troubles, an absolutely safe medicine for young or old. It is not an experiment to use S. S. S.; it is a remedy with a record and one that has proven its worth and ability by its forty years of cures. If you need a blood remedy begin the use of S. S. S., and write our physicians and they will send you a book concerning your trouble, and will give you, without charge, any medical advice.

Washington Horse Throws His Rider and Then Rings Door Bell for Doctor

Washington, D. C. March 30.—The Washington Times, which has always borne a high reputation for scrupulous veracity, prints the following:

"Stranger than fiction is the story of a big bay horse that threw J. H. Wurdeman, Jr., of 1115 Thirteenth street northwest, in front of Dr. H. Wells Woodward's office, 1318 Massachusetts avenue northwest, and afterwards rang the physician's door-bell, summoning the latter to the aid of the injured driver about 6:30 o'clock last evening. Mr. Wurdeman received a severe laceration of the scalp over the right eye. Strangely enough, Dr. Woodward is an eye, ear, and throat specialist. After receiving the necessary medical attention Mr. Wurdeman went to his home a block and a half from the physician's office.

Horse Gets Beyond Control

"Yesterday afternoon Mr. Wurdeman had business on Fourteenth street and used the horse and buggy. While returning to his home the horse became unmanageable near Fourteenth street and Massachusetts avenue. Rearing on its haunches, the animal lunged forward and dashed east along the avenue at break-neck speed.

"When it reached the ally half way between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets the frightened horse galloped up on the sidewalk. Whirling around on the wheels on the right side the buggy crashed into an iron fence surrounding Dr. Woodward's lawn. Mr. Wurdeman was unseated and hurled a distance of twenty feet striking his head on the fence. He fell to the sidewalk in a dazed condition, bleeding profusely from the ugly gash over his right eye.

"The suddenness with which the vehicle came to a standstill and the plunging of the horse threw the body from the buggy. Unrestrained and untrammelled, the horse stood for a moment by the prostrate driver, and then, as if possessed of human instincts, marched up the concrete walk leading to the porch on the east side of the physician's residence and mounted the platform.

Rings Sign and Rings Bell

"At the door of the physician's office there is an electric bell with a small push button. Over this was placed a highly polished nickel plated sign reading: 'Patients enter without ring.' This evidently attracted the attention of the horse. Suffice to say, the vigorous and continued ringing of the bell attracted a member of the family to the door.

"Words could scarcely express the surprise of the woman when she opened the glass door and saw a horse that looked as big as all out of doors standing at the entrance of the office, rubbing his nose up and down on the nickel plated sign. When the woman uttered a scream the horse took his nose from the sign. He thrust his head into the vestibule and eyed her quizzically.

"The physician went to the porch to back the animal to the street, when he saw a crowd around a fallen man, whose face and clothing were covered with blood. Mr. Woodward was taken into the physician's office, where his wound was washed and dressed by Dr. Woodward. Later he phoned for his father, who took him to his home and had the horse sent to the stable. The buggy was practically demolished.

Physician Tells of Feat.

"Dr. Woodward said: 'It was one of the strangest things I have ever heard of. I was attending a patient in my office when I heard a thundering noise on the porch, and I remarked: "That sounds like a horse." An instant later the bell began to ring continuously, as if the person outside was in a big hurry. One of the servants in the house answered the ring. Her astonishment knew no bounds when she found the horse at the door. The animal poked his head almost into the office before I reached the door."

This story is illustrated with a picture of the horse ringing the bell. It is about 165 years since George Washington cut down the cherry tree.

The Moving Habit.

"Yes, we are going to move to escape housecleaning." And so are we. If I must confess it myself, I think it will take the new tenants 2 weeks to get rid of all the rubbish we are leaving behind."

"The same here. Our house will need a mop and soap from cellar to roof. By the way, where are you going?"

"No. 15 L—street."

"What? Why, that is where we are leaving."

"Well, I declare! Where are you going?"

"No. 11 B—street."

"Why, that's where we are leaving."

"Pshaw!"

"Great Scott!"—Tilt-Bits.

CHAMPION "HARD LUCK" STORY

Arrested for Stealing, Tells of Series of Misfortunes Leading to Trouble.

New York, March 30.—A new record for "hard luck" stories was established at the Central station, city hall. The honor fell to Albert Bernstein of 340 Federal street.

Men who have been around the police court for years and are familiar with the hardest of "hard luck" stories agreed that Bernstein's was without a peer and deserved the medal.

The particular incident that brought forth Bernstein's story was his arrest on the charge of larceny of $50 worth of merchandise and jewelry from a Market street store. He was arrested by Special Policeman Sunshine.

About six months ago Bernstein was married, and since then he declares he has had much more than his share of hard luck.

"Well, right at the start my wife has been sick a lot," said Bernstein. "I worked hard whenever I could get anything to do, and by saving every penny I could I managed to scrape together a little over $100. I was keeping this for a rainy day for I knew we'd need it later on.

"Well, one day a store up on Market street advertised umbrellas for sale at 10 cents apiece. I told my wife it was my chance. You know they're only supposed to sell one umbrella to a single person when they let 'em go at that price, but I managed to work around the crowd and I got seven of the umbrellas. I intended selling the umbrellas for more than I paid for them, and just got started on a corner not far from the store when I discovered some one had picked my pocket. They got all my money, $102. Since then I've been up against it, and if it hadn't been that I needed money for my wife I wouldn't have got mixed up in this job."

When Bernstein remarked that he had also been a book agent, Magistrate Koehrsperger replied that that was more hard luck and held the prisoner in $500 bail.

"We don't like the milk we get at Canned," said the millionaire who was spending the winter abroad.

"Then why not have some shipped from Cows?" inquired the near-humorist, with a hoarse laugh. —Louisville Courier-Journal.

SCOPE OF INQUIRY.

Limited To Exact Language of Statute in Thaw Case.

New York, March 30.—Harry K. Thaw for two hours submitted himself to a running fire of questions from the commissioners in lunacy. The examination was conducted behind closed doors and when adjournment was taken until Saturday, no one connected with the hearing before the commissioners would discuss the details of the inquiry. The most important feature of the day's proceedings was the decision of the commission to limit the scope of the inquiry to the exact language of statute—to determine solely the question as to whether or not Thaw is able today to understand the nature of the court proceedings against him and is able to advise his counsel in a rational manner. This was the expert testimony.

TO CENTRAL CITY

Evening Passenger Train Will Be Run, It Is Said.

Passenger train No. 136, which leaves Paducah over the Illinois Central for Hopkinsville every afternoon at 3:10 o'clock, will after Sunday, April 7, run straight through to Central City, opening up a new territory to Paducah merchants, if rumors from authoritative sources can be relied on. There has been talk for several years of running an afternoon Central City accommodation passenger train, but plans never materialized. Years ago such a train was run with financial success to both the road and merchants. It ceased when the present station was built. The present north bound accommodation train switches off at Princeton and goes to Hopkinsville. Connections with the fast Nashville train are made within an hour and fifteen minutes, and officials believe that by running the accommodation straight through to Central City it will not affect the Hopkinsville business, and will give more passenger traffic than now enjoyed.

New York's Extravagant Tax.

It costs New Yorkers $31 a head to be governed. In Philadelphia and in Chicago it costs only $13 a head, and citizens are provided with police, fire, sanitary and other protections common to large cities. In Buffalo the figure is $12; in Washington, Bridgeport, Schenectady and cities of that sort, $11 per capita pays the tax; in Houston, Tex., the charge is under $10; in lively Los Angeles, $7.50; Scranton and Seattle each collect $6.50, and Nashville, Tenn., is at the bottom of the list of progressive cities with a taxation of about $6 per capita, less than one-fifth of New York's rate.

The average city tax throughout the country is probably between $10 and $11 per capita, or almost exactly the amount by which New York has raised its per capita figures in only nine years—Broadway Magazine.

Egg Rolling at the White House.

The egg rolling of Easter Monday at Washington is the most interesting of American Easter practices. The fete is held on the White House grounds, as is well known. Thousands of children are admitted to the broad green sloping lawn to indulge in competitive egg rolling, egg knocking and other games, a scene unrivaled in picturesque and happy interest. This Easter Monday celebration has been emulated in other places in America. In Atlanta, Ga., recently the park commissioners at their own expense procured 10,000 eggs, had them prettily decorated and hid them in one of the city parks, concealing them just sufficiently to give zest to a hunt, to which all the children in the city were invited.

Refrigerator Time is Here

We are exclusive agents for the celebrated Herrick Refrigerator. As the time draws near when we will all need a refrigerator, we want to invite your most critical inspection of the Herrick Refrigerator. If you buy something good in this line, something that will answer the purpose in every detail, you will not have occasion to buy again soon, and we can assure you that you will never have cause to regret having bought a Herrick. What we say of this piece of goods is based on two years' experience in the use of it. We have learned by experience that the Herrick uses less ice, with the same storage space, than any refrigerator made. We have also learned that we can give you more storage space in the Herrick for the same money that you will pay for a cheaper make of refrigerators. The Herrick Refrigerator has no zinc or metal lining to mould and corrode. It is lined with odorless spruce, plain and enameled, which keeps the refrigerator pure and sweet at all times.

Circulation in the Herrick is Perfect

A careful mother does not allow her children to play with matches. Place them in a Herrick refrigerator, where they will be safe from babies and mice. Matches can be kept indefinitely in a Herrick because the circulation is so perfect they cannot become damp.

The water cooling device in the Herrick Refrigerator cannot be equalled. The water tank, as you will see from the cut, is attached either from the top or side of the refrigerator and is one the outside. The water passes from this tank through a coil on which the ice rests, and is drawn from the faucet at the side of the refrigerator, ice cold. The water does not come in contact with the ice at all, therefore it is not tainted with ammonia as water usually is when the ice is put in the water. Now in the Herrick we feel perfectly satisfied that it will answer every purpose desired and expected of a refrigerator, and we make the following proposition:

THIRTY DAYS' TRIAL

Every reliable person who expects and wants to buy a refrigerator this season, and is not fully satisfied that the Herrick Refrigerator will render the service recommended, we will gladly place the same in your house on THIRTY DAYS' TRIAL. If at the end of the time you are not satisfied with the service rendered after following the directions given, we will bring the refrigerator back without any cost to you whatever.

A SQUARE DEAL

Is assured you when you buy one of Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines—for all the ingredients entering into them are printed on the bottle-wrappers and their formula are attested under oath as being complete and correct. You know just what you are paying for and that the ingredients are gathered from Nature's laboratory, being selected from the most valuable native, medicinal roots found growing in our American forests. While potent to cure they are perfectly harmless even to the most delicate women and children.

Not a drop of alcohol enters into their composition. A much better agent is used both for extracting and preserving the medicinal principles used in them, viz.—pure triple-refined glycerine of proper strength. This agent possesses intrinsic medicinal properties of its own, being a most valuable anti-septic and anti-ferment, nutritive and soothing demulcent.

Glycerine plays an important part in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia and weak stomach, attended by sour risings, "heartburn," foul breath, coated tongue, poor appetite, gnawing feeling in stomach, biliousness and kindred derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels.

Besides curing all the above distressing ailments, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a specific for all diseases of the mucous membranes, as catarrh, whether of the nasal passages or of the stomach, bowels or pelvic organs. Even in its ulcerative stages it will yield to this sovereign remedy if its use be persevered in. In Chronic Catarrh of the Nasal passages, it is well, while taking the "Golden Medical Discovery" for the necessary constitutional treatment, to cleanse the passages freely two or three times a day with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. This thorough course of treatment generally cures even in the worst cases.

In coughs and hoarseness caused by bronchial, throat and lung affections, except consumption in its advanced stages, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most efficient remedy, especially in those obstinate, hang-on-coughs caused by irritation and congestion of the bronchial mucous membranes. The "Discovery" is not so good for acute coughs arising from sudden colds, nor must it be expected to cure consumption in its advanced stages—no medicine will do that—but for all the obstinate hang-on, or chronic coughs, which, if neglected, or badly treated, lead up to consumption, it is the best medicine that can be taken.

If the sweet taste of the "Discovery," caused by the glycerine, is disliked, a few drops of lemon juice, orange or lime juice, added to each dose will make it agreeable and pleasant and will not in the slightest interfere with its beneficial effects.

It's an insult to your intelligence for a dealer to endeavor to palm off upon you some nostrum of unknown composition in place of Dr. Pierce's world-famed medicines which are of known composition. Most dealers recommend Dr. Pierce's medicines because they know what they are made of and that the ingredients employed are among the most valuable that a medicine for like purposes can be made of. The same is true of leading physicians who do not hesitate to recommend them, since they know exactly what they contain and that their ingredients are the very best known to medical science for the cure of the several diseases for which these medicines are recommended.

With tricky dealers it is different.

Something else that pays them a little greater profit will be urged upon you as "just as good," or even better. You can hardly afford to accept a substitute of unknown composition and without any particular record of cures in place of Dr. Pierce's medicines which are of known composition and have a record of forty years of cures behind them. You know what you want and it is the dealer's business to supply that want. Insist upon it.

MUTILATED COIN IS IDENTIFIED

One of Most Remarkable Cases of Buried Money

Bills in Utmost Confusion, Received By Treasury Department for Redemption.

SOME OTHER EXPERIENCES.

Washington, March 30.—The most remarkable identification of damaged treasury notes in the history of the government has just been completed by the division of redemption of the treasury department. A few weeks ago a packet of money was received from a bank at Evansville, Ind., with a request that the bills be identified, if possible, and good money issued in the place of the damaged bills. It was estimated by the bank that the packet contained damaged notes of a face value of about $1,000.

Accustomed as they were to receiving money in all sorts of damaged conditions, the experts of the division were mystified by this particular packet. It was in a worse condition than any other package of money ever sent in for identification. It looked as if it might have been buried in the earth for a long time. There were indications, also, that after it had been removed from the earth it had been dried in an oven. The effort to separate the bills by heating the package had been unsuccessful, for they adhered to each other as if glued, and the whole mass presented somewhat the appearance of a large plug of tobacco.

At the treasury department kerosene oil was used to separate the mass, and all of the secret processes of identification known to the bureau were employed with such extraordinary success that out of a package supposed to contain only $1,000 worth of bills enough notes were identified to make a total of $2,575, and that amount in crisp, new bills, has been forwarded to the bank at Evansville. The principal part of the mass consisted of notes that were issued twenty years ago and longer, and added to these were several bills of more modern date, none, however, being issued later than five years ago. The theory of the treasury department is that the main package of notes was buried underground for safekeeping twenty years ago, but that some time later it was exhumed, and the more modern bills were added and the whole again buried. The letter from the bank threw no light on where or how the package was found. Usually the amount actually identified falls far short of the amount claimed by the owner of damaged money, but in this case the bank, or the person it represents, is $1,575 better off than expected.

The division of redemption has never had a more interesting case than this one from Indiana.

Similar Cases.

"However," said Franklin W. Lentz, the acting chief, who formerly lived at Indianapolis, "there are numerous other cases that are closely akin to it in point of human interest. A large fire like that at San Francisco, or a flood like that at Galveston, always brings to us many sums of paper money for identification. Not long ago a prominent senator from the middle west brought a package under his arm and we opened it in his presence. It had been sent to him by a banker constituent, and he brought it to us with the seal unbroken. To our surprise, when the cover was removed, there was exposed an old-fashioned fourth reader of the kind that was in use in the schools when I was a boy. Half of the leaves had been cut out, and in place of the leaves there had been inserted a miscellaneous collection of bank notes, none of which was of a later issue than thirty-five years ago. Many of the notes were damaged almost beyond recognition by the dry rot, but we managed to identify between $1,600 and $1,700 worth. We afterward learned that the old fourth reader with its valuable contents had been between the rafters and the roof of an old house for more than a quarter of a century.

Money in Stoves.

"Most of the small remittances that come to us for identification," added Mr. Lentz, "are a result of the habit which many housewives have of putting money in stoves for safe-keeping. Why any woman would want to keep her money in a stove is beyond my comprehension, but it is surprising how many of them seem to think that the stove is the safest place on earth. During the summer season when there is no fire in the sitting room the good housewife puts her money in the stove. Then comes an unexpected cold snap, hubby lights the fire and the flames lick up the money. Often the bills are rescued before being entirely consumed. We can usually identify the bills by the scraps and sometimes by the ashes. Our heaviest receipts of small remittances come in the fall of the year, just after fires are started in the heating stoves."

The fine work of identifying damaged bills is done by Mrs. A. E. Brown, who has an international reputation for skill in this peculiar field of endeavor. She identified the buried money sent from Evansville.

INSOMNIA FORCES STEVENS OUT

Resignation of Chief Engineer of the Canal Explained.

Washington, D. C., March 30.—Insomnia was responsible for the resignation of Chief Engineer John F. Stevens, according to statements made to the president today by members of congress returning from an inspection trip to the isthmus.

These men gave the president to understand further that Mr. Stevens is sorry that he relinquished the important work of building the canal and that if he could do so he would withdraw his resignation. Of course this action is impossible, as Lieut. Col. Goethals has been ordered to supersede Mr. Stevens on April 1. It is expected that Mr. Stevens will come to Washington and see the president. There is no likelihood, however, that he will be retained in the government service even as consulting engineer.

According to what Mrs. Stevens is telling her friends, her husband does not want further employment, but intends to accompany her to Europe, where they will remain for several months.

CATS GO ON ROAD'S PAYROLL

Orders Providing For Official Rat Killers' Board.

Cleveland, O., March 30.—The Euclid avenue station cat of the Pennsylvania railroad is to receive official recognition, Mr. Cat is to go on the payroll and receive a monthly appropriation large enough to pay for his milk, and perhaps fish now and then. Then if he doesn't keep rats out of the baggage room he will be discharged and another cat will be employed to do rat catching about the station. A general order issued by President McCrea requires a cat to be kept at every station on the system to kill the rats that tear baggage in transit. The Euclid avenue station cat has been on the job more than a year, and has given satisfaction.

An Easter Day.

Out of the tomb of night a day has risen; be not anxious, this day is all your own; do not hurry, for in time it is like all other days; neither delay, for NOW is passing. Early turn your face to the dawn and let its fresh beams bathe away all the stains of night, then should the noon be dark with storms, your smile will still wear the rose tints of the morning. This new day can be saved only by spending it; therefore, in its care be enduring; in its confusion be patient; in its sorrow be trustful; in its trial be noble; in its peril be heroic. Step softly among human hearts and leave so much of kindness along life's pathway, that gladness shall spring up bearing tribute in the cool eventide of the world's glad Easter.—Delmer Eugene Croft.

Forest Preservation.

Senator Depew chose a good subject lately when he pointed out that we had been only ten years doing a work that was carried on by the Swiss government for 500 years, with the result that Switzerland is still a habitable and happy country for the Swiss, and an unmatched summer resort for the rest of us. In Germany forestry is a government function is hundreds of years old, and in France it dates back to Louis XIV.
The latter country, indeed, has just spent $18,000,000 as a part of tree-planting operations which will cost $24,000,000 before they are through.
Instead of spending $18,000,000 on planting in the Appalachian region,
we have preferred to lose that sum in damages by floods caused by lack of those very trees. That happens to be just the total of the flood damages along the Ohio and its tributaries during the last four years.—Brook-

Derivation of "Easter."

Like many another term in Christian nomenclature, the word "Easter" is derived from pagan sources. The Saxon goddess of light, "Eostre," was honored with annual festival at the vernal equinox. The Jewish passover was also regulated by the March moon and the resurrection of Jesus occurred at this season. In later centuries the great Christian festival came to bear the pagan name "Easter" and to be celebrated at a time coincident with the Jewish feast.

When at last they drew up before the dark archway of Middle Temple lane he descended hastily, and as he mechanically turned to protect Eve's dress from the wheel he looked at her fully for the first time since their enterprise had been undertaken. As he looked he felt his heart sink. He had expected to see the marks of suffering on her face, but the expression he saw suggested something more than mere mental pain.

All the rich color that usually deepened and softened the charm of her beauty had been erased as if by a long illness, and against the new pal-or of her skin her blue eyes, her black hair and eyebrows seemed startlingly dark. A chill colder than remorse, a chill that bordered upon actual fear, touched Loder in that moment. With the first impulsive gesture he had allowed himself, he touched her arm.

"Eve!" he began, unsteadily. Then the word died off his lips.
Without a sound, almost without a movement, she returned his glance, and something in her eyes checked what he might have said. In that one expressive look he understood all she had desired, all she had renounced—the full extent of the ordeal she had consented to and the motive that had compelled her consent. He drew back with the heavy sense that repentance and pity were equally futile—equally out of place.

Still in silence, she stepped to the pavement and stood aside while Loder dismissed the cab. To both there was something symbolic, something prophetic, in the dismissal. Without intention and almost unconsciously they drew closer together as the horse turned, its hoofs clattering on the roadway; its harness jingling and, still without realization, they looked after the vehicle as it moved away down the long, shadowed thoroughfare toward the lights and the crowds that they had left. At last involuntarily they turned toward each other.

"Come," Loder said abruptly. "It's only across the road."

Their street is generally very quiet once midnight is passed, and Eve had no need of guidance or protection as they crossed the pavement, shining like ice in the lamplight. They crossed it slowly, walking apart, for the dread of physical contact that had possessed them in the cab seemed to have fallen on them again.

Inquisitiveness has little place in the region of the city, and they gained the opposite footpath unnoticed by the casual passerby. Then, still holding apart, they reached and entered Clifford's inn.
Inside the entrance they paused, and Eve shivered involuntarily. "How gray it is!" she said faintly. "And how cold! Like a graveyard."

Loder turned to her. For one moment control seemed shaken. His blood surged, his vision clouded. The sense that life and love were still within his reach filled him overwhelmingly. He turned toward Eve; he half extended his hands. Then, stirred by what impulse, moved by what instinct, it was impossible to say, he let them drop to his sides again.

"Come!" he said. "Come! This is the way. Keep close to me. Put your hand on my arm."

He spoke quietly, but his eyes were resolutely averted from her face as they crossed the dim, silent court.
Entering the gloomy doorway that led to his own rooms, he felt her fingers tremble on his arm, then tighten in their pressure as the bare passage and cheerless stairs met her view, but he set his lips.

"Come!" he repeated in the same strained voice. "Come! It isn't far—three or four flights."

With a white face and a curious expression in her eyes Eve moved forward. She had released Loder's arm as they crossed the hall, and now, reaching the stairs, she put out her hand gropingly and caught the banister. She had a pained, numb sense of submission, of suffering that had sunk to apathy. Moving forward without resistance, she began to mount the stairs.

The ascent was made in silence. Loder went first, his shoulders braced, his head held erect. Eve, mechanically watchful of all his movements, followed a step or two behind. With weary monotony one flight of stairs succeeded another, each to her unaccustomed eyes seeming more colorless, more solitary, more desolate than the preceding one.

Then at last, with a sinking sense of apprehension, she realized that their goal was reached.

The knowledge broke sharply through her dulled senses, and, confronted by the closeness of her ordeal, she paused,
her head lifted, her hand still nervously grasping the banister. Her lips parted as if in sudden demand for aid, but in the nervous expectation, the pained apprehension of the moment, no sound escaped them. Loder, resolutely crossing the landing, knew nothing of the silent appeal.

For a second she stood hesitating;
then her own weakness, her own shrinking dismay, were submerged in the luster of his movements. Slowly mounting the remaining steps, she followed him as if fascinated toward the door that showed dimly conspicuous in the light of an unshaded gas jet.

Almost at the moment that she reached his side he extended his hand toward the door. The action was decisive and hurried, as though he feared to trust himself.

For a space he fumbled with the lock. And Eve, standing close behind him, heard the handle creak and turn under his pressure. Then he shook the door.

"Chilcote is dead."

At last, slowly, almost reluctantly, he turned round. "I'm afraid things aren't quite—quite right," he said in a low voice. "The door is locked, and I can see no light."

She raised her eyes quickly. "But you have a key?" she whispered.
"Haven't you got a key?" It was obvious that to both the unexpected check to their designs was fraught with danger.

"Yes, but"—He looked toward the door. "Yes, I have a key. Yes, you're right," he added quickly. "I'll use it.
Wait while I go inside."

Filled with a new nervousness, oppressed by the loneliness, the silence
about her, Eve drew back obediently.
The sense of mystery conveyed by the closed door weighed upon her. Her susceptibilities were tensely alert as she watched Loder search for his key and insert it in the lock. With mil-liblead dread and curiosity she saw the door yield and gape open like a black gish in the dingy wall, and with a sudden sense of desertion she saw him pass through the aperture and heard him strike a match.

The wait that followed seemed extraordinarily long. Listening intently, she heard him move softly from one room to the other. And at last, to her acutely nervous susceptibilities, it seemed that he paused in absolute silence. In the intensity of listening she heard her own faint, irregular breathing, and the sound filled her with panic. The quiet, the solitude, the vague, instinctive apprehension, became suddenly unendurable. Then all at once the tension was relieved. Loder reappeared.

He paused for a second in the shadowy doorway; then he turned unsteadily, drew the door to and locked it.
Eve stepped forward. Her glimpse of him had been momentary—and she had not heard his voice—yet the consciousness of his bearing filled her with instinctive alarm. Abruptly and without reason her hands turned cold, her heart began to beat violently. "John!"
she said below her breath.

For answer he moved toward her.
His face was bereft of color; there was a look of consternation in his eyes.
"Come," he said. "Come at once. I must take you home." He spoke in a shaken, uneven voice.

Eve, looking up at him, caught his hand. "Why? Why?" she questioned.
Her tone was low and scared.

Without replying he drew her imperatively toward the stairs. "Go very softly," he commanded. "No one must see you here."

In the first moment she obeyed him instinctively; then, reaching the head of the stairs, she stopped. With one hand still clasping his, the other clinging nervously to the banister, she refused to descend. "John," she whis-

What has happened? I must know."
For a moment Loder looked at her uncertainly; then, reading the expression in her eyes, he yielded to her demand.
"He's dead," he said in a very low voice. "Chilcote is dead."

CHILD SLAVERY IS THE NATION'S INFAMY.

A meeting is to be held in New York this week to form a Child Labor League. It is called by the Women's conference of the New York Society for Ethical Culture and will be held in the Hudson theater Thursday, March 21, at 3 o'clock.

The objects of the league are to secure the enforcement of existing laws and report violations thereof, and to prepare a list of responsible persons who will assist in procuring child labor legislation.

This movement should extend throughout the nation. The enslavement of children for purposes of gain is the shame of every American. Nobody attempts openly to defend it;
but employers, who, parrot-like, repeat the threadbare platitude that "Business is business," and the more shameless one that "Our first object is to make money," continue in fact what they dare not uphold in theory.
Recently an American called attention to the biennial school census of New York just made public, wherein it is reported that 87,000 children in this city are kept at work, and that nearly 10,000 of these are employed illegally.

It is to the shame of the present administration that it does not enforce the law.

On Jan. 9 of the present year Justice Olmstead from the bench said that he knew personally of not fewer than fifty boys under sixteen who are employed in ten-hour shifts at night in the Pennsylvania and Belmont tunnels.

Here also is a matter that the prospective league might investigate.

As bad as the situation is in New York however, it is immeasurably worse in other sections. It has been estimated that if the victims of child labor in Pennsylvania were to stand shoulder to shoulder with no space between, the solid line would extend for over 22 miles.

The condition is even worse in many of the factories of the south, and is quite as bad in the cotton mills
of New England.

A trifle over a month ago the national census bureau gave out the belated bulletin on child labor for the census of 1900. The fact that its is-suanee was delayed over seven years would not indicate that this bureau is keenly interested in the question.
The bulletin showed that in the United States there are employed 1,750-178 children between 10 and 15 years of age. By the time the children reach the age of 15 it is estimated that over one-half of the boys and one fifth of the girls in the nation are bread-winners.

In the cotton mills alone more than 44,000 children under 15 were at work, or nearly one-fifth of all persons employed in that industry.
Ten per cent of the glassworkers,
one of the most unhealthful of occupations, were children under 15.

These were the conditions in 1900.
The case is probably much worse
now. The statistics of the labor unions indicate that at least two million children are regularly employed.
Senator Beveridge in his fight for a national child labor law, which was killed by a little coterie of lawyers in a house committee, stated that the number of child workers is at least two millions.

Many of these children toil long hours under unhealthful conditions and for a wage pitifully small. Their servitude not only robs them of education and play time, but cuts off hope of a developed manhood and womanhood. It dwarfs their bodies, numbs their brains and starves their souls. It is the crime of American civilization.—New York American.

Easter at Christ Church School.

In London there is an old and felicitous custom on Easter Monday,
when the boys of the famous Christ hospital school repair to the Mansion House to receive from the lord mayor what are known as "Easter bobs." Each "Greclan" receives a sovereign, and the others, according to their relative standing, are given coins of lesser value. Refreshments of lemonade and buns are served, after which the mayor and the civic authorities conduct the boys to Christ church, Newgate, where they hear a sermon.

MANUFACTURERS' EXPORTS STEADILY INCREASING.

Washington—The United States
now ranks third among the world's exporters of manufactures, according to a monograph on "Exports of Manufactures From the United States and the Distribution," issued today by the Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Commerce and Labor.

It is shown that not only do the exports of manufactures now exceed $700,000,000 per annum, and have doubled in value in a single decade, but the share which products of the factory form of the total exports is steadily increasing. A comparison shows that in 1880 manufactures formed but 15 per cent of the total exports of domestic products, while in 1906 they formed 40 per cent.

With the rapid increase of population in the United States and consumption of natural products, the quality of food and raw materials remaining for distribution to the other parts of the world has not increased proportionately and with the development of manufacturing facilities and the trend of population to the manufacturing centers, production of manufactures has already increased,
and the surplus of these manufactures, which may be spared for foreign markets has also increased.

An Announcement of Importance for Shoe Wearers

The American Lady and the American Gentleman, the Best Popular Price Shoes

MADE HAVE BEEN PLACED WITH LENDLER & LYDON

This announcement is of the greatest moment to every man, woman and child in Paducah—every one who wears shoes. The American Lady and the American Gentleman are brands of shoes that the largest and most up-to-date shoe manufacturers in the country, the Hamilton-Brown Shoe Co., of St. Louis, have made famous. Famous because they are undoubtedly the best values in shoes money will buy, at the prices.

The proof of that is the fact there are probably more American Lady and American Gentleman shoes worn than any other shoe.

The American Lady sells at from $2.50 to $4, and the price simply won't buy more shoe value anywhere.

The American Gentleman sells at from $3.50 to $5, and the price simply won't buy more shoe value anywhere.

In each line, ladies or gentlemen, these is a shoe that will fit every and any foot. Making the quantity of shoes they do, Hamilton-Brown Co. necessarily have the greatest possible number of lasts and different styles.

As an illustration of the magnitude of the firm, they have five specialty factories. (Note—Every factory is a specialty factory, and employs only specialists schooled to that particular work.)

These five factories make 48,000 pairs of shoes a day and preparations are being made to enlarge the plants.

Merit must necessarily be the foundation stone for such a business. And having attained to such proportions the firm must not kick down the ladder that elevated it—making the best shoes made. No, they must keep up the standard.

We are showing Hamilton-Brown's complete lines in these famous shoes, as well as their children's shoes, and shall be pleased to show them to you at any time. Come in to see us. You won't be urged to buy.

The Final Punch.

An omnibus full of young Parisian students was rolling down the street when a quiet-looking old gentleman in priest's attire got in. The students, angry at the interruption, began using bad language in the hope of driving him outside. But the priest took no more notice than if the bus had been perfectly empty. At last he rose to get out.

Then he turned and very politely said:

"Till we meet again, gentlemen."
"Goodby, old chap," shouted one;
"we don't want to see you again."
"Pardon me," replied the priest,

"we are sure to meet again. I am the chaplain of Mazas prison."—T. P.'s Weekly.

THE WHITE MAN'S BURDEN.

Traveler: "You're sure my luggage will be all right here? It won't get stolen?"
Native: "Oh, dey won't get stole, massa. Dere ain't no udder white man about here 'ceptin' yourself."

GREATEST OF ALL MASTODONS

Teeth of Prehistoric Monster Found in Alaska Weigh 50 Pounds Each.

What is perhaps the largest mastodon ever uncovered completely in Alaska, was unearthed during the past six months at Circle City by Max L. Lohrrunner.

The exact location of the mastodon is on Alice Creek, tributary of Mineral Creek, which flows into Woodchopper Creek. To judge of the other dimensions of the huge monster it must be only said that one tusk of the mammoth which is still intact, is more than nine feet eight inches long and has a circumference of eighteen inches. The jaws of the animal still have teeth, four in number. Each of these teeth which have been taken out and replaced, weigh fifty pounds apiece. The other parts of the animal are in a poor state of preservation compared with the tusk. Although the bones have not all been collected, they weigh in the neighborhood of 1,000 pounds.

Lohrrunner, who got the bones, dug them out at a depth of eight feet below the surface of the ground. It took a great amount of care and pains on his part to see to it that the bones were not burned to charcoal, while he was excavating and thawing the ground.

Lohrrunner has moved part of the animal into storage at Circle City and will hold it there till springtime, when it will be removed to Seattle, where it will be put together and eventually find its way into the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition. If the Smithsonian Institution does not get it before that time.

"Alice Creek, where I found this mastodon," said Lohrrunner, "is one of the most wonderful on earth, from a standpoint of research. It seems to be the boneyard that a whole lot of prehistoric animals made in order to die, or to be killed. We have found on the creek the skeletons of mastodons, musk-ox caribou, bear and other animals. If this creek ever goes into a hydraulic mining proposition, the world will be astonished with the many finds of bones of animals in prehistoric times."—From the Vancouver Province.

He Got the Money.

Here is a french joke that is rather English in character. The Marquis de Favieres notorious for his impetuosity, called on a man of means named Barnard, and said:

"Monsieur, I am going to astonish you. I am the Marquis de Favieres. I do not know you, and I come to borrow five hundred louis."

"Monsieur," Barnard replied, "I am going to astonish you much more. I know you and I am going to lend them."

Probably Catching.

A young matron of Baltimore, upon entering her nursery, found her youngest in tears.

"Why, what's the matter with Harry?" she asked the nurse.

"He's mad, mum," exclaimed the nurse "because I wouldn't let him go to the Simmonses' across the strait."

"And why wouldn't you let him go Norah?"

"Because mum, they're havin' charades, so I said, an' I wasn't sure whether he's had them or not."—Harper's Weekly.

What Worried Mark's Mother.

I was always told that I was a sickly and precarious and tiresome and uncertain child, and lived mainly on allopathic medicines during the first seven years of my life. I asked my mother about this, in her old age—she was in her eighty-eighth year—and said:

"I suppose that during all that time you were uneasy about me?"

"Yes, the whole time."

"Afraid I couldn't live?"

After a reflective pause—ostensibly to think out the facts:

"No—afraid you would."—Mark Twain's Autobiography in the North American Review.

Pennsylvania Primaries.

It will surprise a great many people to hear that the winter primaries, under the new law, cost about $1,000,000, bills for which have been presented to the state for payment. Those primaries were not general. There were many counties where the nominations were made under the old system, the parties themselves paying for them. If the winter primaries under such circumstances cost so much, the June primaries, which will be held in every district in the state, will involve the expenditure of from $1,500,000 to $2,000,000. It is not much wonder there is a desire to get rid of one of the elections.—Philadelphia Press.

Siberian butter goes to Hamburg, is repacked and sent to the Far East as a German production. Russian sugar goes to Japan in an Austrian disguise, and Russian calico is sold there under a German wrapper. Those are some of the reasons why the Russo-Japanese Commercial company has been formed in Russia.
